George

1829 - Jan. 3.

In the name of God, Amen I George Berry of the State of Tennessee Blount County, calling to mind that all men have to die, and being in a feeble state of health, though in perfect mind and memory as on this third day of January One Thousand eight hundred and twenty nine make and ordain this my last will and desire as follows viz

1st It is my request that all my just debts shall be paid of by my executors out of their part of my property that my wife and family can best spare and of such articles as they may think proper to dispose of.

2^d It is my wish and desire for my beloved wife Elizabeth Berry to have all my household and kitchen furniture to use and dispose of in that way and manner that she may think proper and give her one milk cow and calf just which she may think proper to take one horse more known by the name of Nags -

3^d It is my wish and desire for my wife and family to live together as long as she lives and they all are so inclined to stay with her and keep all of my property together for the use of the family and at her death for the property left to her for that purpose to be subject to the distribution among my children and Grand children (only such articles as I shall give to my children hereafter which I shall not include as the common stock on my farm) I wish it to be subject to share shares

4th That part of my stock of horses owned by my daughter Katty Berry I disown and acknowledge them to be her property viz. One Stead mare known by the name of Still, One Pacer mare known by the name of Blue, and one half of the Chestnut Colt known by the name of Doctor, Also that part of my stock of cows owned by my daughter Peggy Berry I disown viz -

One Stear one year old, one Cow and two Calves and I hereby acknowledge them to be the property of the aforesaid Peggy Berry

5th It is my desire that at my wife's death that one share of my property shall be equally divided between my two Grand children known by the name as follows viz. one half to go to George B. Berry and the other half to James Cummings.

6th It is also my wish that at my wife's death, for one share to be divided as follows viz. I wish my Grand Son George B. Thomson to have my half of one of said shares and my two Grand daughters Elizabeth and Sarah Cummings to have the other half of said share.

7th It is my request for my executors to furnish my daughters Abby Berry with one side Saddle worth seventy five dollars out of the common stock of my property, I also give her out of my stock of cattle one blooded calf.

8th I also desire for my daughters to be furnished with one Cow and calf (if any calves) whose names be here asserted viz.

Katty Berry, Sally Berry, Peggy Berry and Ann Berry

9th It is also my wish and desire for my son James Berry to have the other half of the belt owned by Katty Berry

10th It is my wish and desire at the death of my wife Elizabeth Berry for each one of my children to have a share of the common stock left on hand whereas the names will follow viz
