David

I David Eagleton of said County and State being weak in body but of sound mind and memory and knowing that if is appointed executor for all mine as more fully set out in my last will and testament. In the first place I recommend my soul to God and my body to be buried in the Christian burial. In the second place I will the premises marked now line on to my son Robert R. Eagleton and the place I own on Tennessee to be sold. And my son Robert to have five hundred and fifty dollars out of the sale of the same to redeem the land I now live on and the surplus to go to the support of my wife during her life all my stock and farming utensils I leave to my son Robert. Should anything remain of the sale of my Tennessee plantation after the decease of my wife I wish it to be divided betwixt my son James Eagleton and my daughter Margaret. I do not so follow to wish to my son James two hundred dollars and to my daughter Margaret two hundred dollars and should there be any surplus it is to fall to my son Robert having given to all my other children their share. I do hereby appoint Robert Cook and Robert Eagleton as my executors.
In testimony of the above I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 3^d day of November 1837
