

Ewing
John

I signed sealed and delivered to be the last will and testament of the above named John Ewing in presence of us who at his request and in his presence have subscribed our names as witnesses to the same
William Edmonson
David Edmonson

Ewing
Margaret

I Margaret Ewing of the County of Blount and the State of Tennessee do make and publish this as my last will and testament hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any time made. First I direct that my funeral expenses and all my debts be paid as soon as possible out of any moneys that I may be possessed of or that may first come into the hands of my executors. Secondly I give and bequeath to Abigail Campbell daughter of Wmth Eggleston one bed and bed furniture. Thirdly, I give and bequeath to my daughter Ellen M. Colloch the remainder of my property and what moneys I possess. Lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint Robert Cook Collector my executor in witness whereof I do to this my will set my hand and seal this Sixteenth day of March 1846
Witness } George Caldwell
          } Margaret Ewing

Eggleston
David

I David Eggleston of said County and State being weak in body but of sound mind and memory and knowing that if is appointed end for all men to die do make and publish this my last will and testament. In the first place I recommend my soul to God and my body to be buried in the Christian burial. In the second place I will the premises thereof now live on to my son Robert K. Eggleston and the place I own on Tennessee to be sold and my son Robert to have five hundred and fifty dollars out of the sale of the same to redeem the land I now live on and the surplus to go to the support of my wife during her life all my stock and farming utensils I leave to my son Robert. Should anything remain of the sale of my Tennessee plantation after the decease of my wife I wish it to be divided betwixt my son James Eggleston and my daughter Margaret Cook as follows to wit to my son James two hundred dollars and to my daughter Margaret two hundred dollars and should there be any surplus or is to fall to my son Robert having given to all my other children their share of an hundred either all other wills heretofore made by me and I do hereby appoint Robert Cook and Robert Eggleston as my executors.
In testimony of the above I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 3rd day of November 1837
Witness } J. Montgomery
          } David Eggleston
          } Robert K. Eggleston

Ewing
George

I know all whereby these presents that I George Ewing of the County of Blount and State of Tennessee being weak and infirm

Ewing
George

of body but of sound and disposing mind and memory and knowing that it is appointed for all to die and being desirous when it shall please God to cause to call me home of leaving my worldly affairs arranged and settled do for that purpose hereby make ordain and publish this as my last will and testament to wit
1. I will ~~bequeath~~ that all my just debts if any and my funeral expenses be paid.
2. I give and bequeath to my wife Margaret Ewing my present dwelling house and all my household and kitchen furniture also one horse and two cows and calves to be chosen by herself with the vicissitude of the hours for ten or twenty years past. Also all the money that I now have on hand except Eighty dollars which I give to my son in law Wmth Eggleston. And will and bequeath that she my said wife shall receive of the proceeds of my farm a competent and comfortable support during her natural life and likewise plenty of firewood prepared for use
3. I give and bequeath to George E. Colloch son of Samuel M. Colloch my son in law my debt and Book Case
4. I give and devise to my son in law Samuel M. Colloch and William Eggleston the tract of land on which I now live; to the said Samuel and his heirs and assigns all that part of said tract lying North and West of a line by which I have heretofore divided said tract beginning in the bank of Little River below the deep ford at a marked wild Cherry tree running towards the mouth of the Spring branch to three marked black oak Saplings then east westerly to two marked locusts in the field - then with a fence running across the Spring branch to a Stake - then with the fence parallel to the Spring branch to a Walnut in the orchard near the place above the pick up Machine then to a marked black oak Sapling on the left hand side of the road leading from my dwelling house to Marys Hill - then along said road to a marked Post Cast on the western boundary line of said tract when the same crosses said road; and to the said William and his heirs and assigns all that part of my said tract or original survey lying east and south of said dividing line. To have or to hold the parts or parcels of land hereby given and devised as the same is herein divided and allotted unto the said Samuel and the said William respectively and their respective heirs and assigns with the tenements appurtenances and he retainments to each part respectively appertaining and belonging to I will and bequeath that my moneys or property of my estate herein otherwise appropriated shall be equally divided among the children of my daughter Eleanor M. Colloch and Margaret Eggleston. I will and bequeath to Elizabeth White who is now living her with twenty five dollars provided she survive with my wife Margaret during her natural life.
5. I do hereby will and appoint that my friends James Pillsbury Esqr. William Eggleston. Samuel M. Colloch and Campbell Ewing shall act as my executors in the execution of this my last will and testament who are hereby constituted and appointed and for that purpose and I hereby revoke disannul and set aside all other former will and testament by me at any time made and published herebefore. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 4th day of April in the year of our Lord 1838
George Ewing

44
Ewing
George

Signed sealed and published as the last will and testament of George Ewing and by us witnessed in his presence and at his request, Witness Richard Drummond

Edmondson
Benjamin

In the name of God Amen I Benjamin Edmondson being of sound mind and disposing memory (Headshe of Ed) do this day of August in the year of our lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty three make and publish this my last will and testament in manner following that it to say first of give and bequeath to my son Parker Edmondson the two small tracts of land I do possessed of one in Belmont County on which my present wife my share which said tract purchased of John Vears, Beginning at a White Oak and stake on the bank of the river South thirty five and a half degrees West Sixty two and 1/2 Miles to a Hickory, then North Sixty two west to a Pear Oak, a considered tract with its various windings to a Mulberry on the bank of the River thence in the East to the beginning of a Runway being had to John Miller Conspicuous to an eye as it stands in Belmont County will more fully appear and the other tract of fifty Acres Beginning at a small Hickory on the south bank of Liver Island, Thence south fifty East use the south shore of said Island, thence down the North bank of said Island as it meanders to a bar, a conditional corner made between John Vears and L. Vears, thence with a conditional line across the Island a south course to come to the beginning, which said parcel of land had was conveyed to me by John Vears in the year 1816 which deed is of record in the Records of Belmont, to which reference may be had, The tract of land aforesaid Containing Sixty Six Acres I bequeath to my son aforesaid Parker Edmondson his heirs and assigns forever I do give to my daughter Barbara Ewing and bequeath to her bed and furniture and one cow and calf it is for this my will that my brother Parker Edmondson find her a home and reasonable support so long as she may live unmarried. It is my will that my two houses and all the other stock I now am possessed of and household furniture and all my other property of every description be sold by my executor as a credit of three months and the proceeds thereof to be equally divided between my children one share each and share alike and I do hereby make and ordain my two sons Sterling Edmondson and Parker Edmondson Executors of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I the said Benjamin Edmondson have to this my last will and testament set my hand and seal the day and year above written Signed sealed published and declared by the said Benjamin Edmondson (Ed)

Edmondson the testator as his last will and testament in the presence of us also were present at the time of signing and sealing thereof.

A. King
R. W. Young bond
Witness Thomas Bond
Henry Young

Fergus
John

In the name of God Amen I John Ferguson of the County of Polk in the State of Tennessee being weak of body but of sound mind and disposing memory do make and constitute this my last will and testament I give my body to the dust to be decently buried and my soul to God who gave it. In hope of a happy resurrection as to the goods of this world which it has pleased God to bless me with I dispose of them in the following manner Viz. to my son in law William Blythe and the heirs of my son John Ferguson I have already given more than would be their share but I give them my dollar and fifty Cents each.
I give to my wife Millie Ferguson all my house and kitchen furniture and all my farming tools and all my stock of every kind and one half of my land to be disposed of at her pleasure. To my step son David Melch. I give the other half of my land to be enjoyed by him and his heirs forever and if the land should be divided it is to be done agreeable to quantity and quality. And lastly I constitute and appoint my wife Millie Ferguson the sole executor of this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills by me made In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this fourteenth day of February in the year of our lord Eighteen hundred and thirty Signed sealed and published in presence of us } A. D. Double Thomas Double

Fergus
Archibald

November 29 The manumission which Archibald Fergus wished his property to be disposed of after his death the children that was married he had given them what he intended to give my what would make a will. Dauphin but if his wife should Fergus prove proper to give them any more she could do so she can procure that case he wished his wife to hold and keep all his property under her control as it was when he was alive and to divide it to his children that yet remains with him as they stand it at Wm. Gillespie.

Ferguson
Hugh

November 9th 1854
In the name of God Amen I Hugh Ferguson of the State of Tennessee and County of Polk being weak in body but in perfect mind and memory and calling to mind the mortality of my body desiring that it is appointed for all men once to die do make and ordain this my last will and testament and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me with in this life I give devise and dispose of the same in the manner and form following Viz. In the first place I will all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid. In the second place I give to my beloved wife Mary C. Ferguson the Pray more that I now own and all the cows hogs and sheep that may be on the farm on which I now live and all the house furniture beds and bedding and all the outboard ware to be at her disposal at her death. In the third place I will that my money or property that now stands remain