

Henderson
Alexander

Last will and testament That is to say, first I commend my soul into the hands of God who gave it and my body to the dust from whom it was to be buried in a Christian like manner at the discretion of my executors and Secondly as regards that portion of the worldly goods with which it has pleased the Lord to bless me I bequeath first that all my just debts be paid out of the money on hand or so much of the personal property in the place as will satisfy for the same to be sold at the discretion of my executors. Secondly I bequeath to my wife Ann all the perishable property in the place after my debts are paid together with the farming utensils my household and kitchen furniture I also ordain that she shall have her dower of the place on which I now live her lifetime and also the use of one end of the house Thirdly I bequeath to my Son John Henderson all the property he has received from me as his part of my estate. Fourthly I bequeath to Daughter Egnas J. Bedford the dower together with what articles she may have received from me hereafter as her part of my estate Fifthly, I bequeath to my daughter Minna Henderson the property her I have hereafter given her and I also ordain that she shall have her dower of the place on which I now live her lifetime or until she changes her way of living in that case I bequeath to her a horse to be worth as much as any of those which any of her Sisters has received from me to be made out of the place or given to her by my sons Alexander and Francis P. Henderson and also a good cow. Sixthly, I bequeath to my daughter Esther Walker all the property that I have hereafter given her as her part of my estate. Seventhly I bequeath to my daughter Susanna Jane Cotton all the property that I have hereafter given her as her part of my estate Eighthly, I bequeath to my son William D. Henderson the plantation which I purchased of Mr. M^r. Thomas D. Kinsdale provided that he pay to his mother one hundred dollars and give to Alexander D. Bedford my Grand Son a good two year old Colt. Ninthly I bequeath to my Sons Alexander P. and Francis P. Henderson the plantation on which I now live at the death of their Mother and their Sister Malinda and the use of any part of the place which may not be necessary for their Support as hereinafter provided provided the same to Malinda should she change her way of living a horse as good as any that any of her Sisters received from me Tenthly as regards a debt that is owing to me in the State of Indiana if it is ever collected I ordain that it shall be divided equally among my Children Eleventhly it is here provided that if Alexander P. and Francis P. Henderson should wish to make Sale of the place from me to the death of their Mother and Malinda they are at liberty to do so with their Consents provided they will provide for them as hereafter Specified by maintaining them and giving Malinda a home in case she should change her way of living at the place where she may choose to move Subject I appoint my wife Ann Henderson and John D. Henderson my executors in whose names I have hereunto set my hand this 22^d day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty two. Signed in the presence of us } Henry H. Hunt James G. Eubank
 Alexander Henderson

Henderson
William

The last will and testament of William Henderson of Blount County State of Tennessee. He being only one child William Henderson

Henderson
William

who who was not born in wedlock. I am desirous to give my property to him and my beloved wife or his heirs as herein stipulated. I devise and give to my wife Susannah Henderson one third part of all the real property of which I may be possessed of during her natural life including the family dwelling and its appertinances and the third part of the land to be unincumbered unless she chooses to divide it. I devise and give my household and kitchen furniture to my said wife. I give and devise to my said wife and her heirs such of them as she may desire one third of all the personal property goods and chattels of which I may be possessed of existing at this time of thirteen negroes or portion of the old woman Anais which is or will be the charge besides my stock and other property with the increase of any and in the division of my stock of horses cattle &c my wife is to be charged with two thirds of the sale of the household and kitchen furniture. I give and bequeath to my wife all the money of which I may be possessed after paying all my debt's out of the same. I give and devise to my natural Son William Henderson the remainder of two thirds of all the real and personal property and goods and chattels which I may acquire and possessed and at the death of my wife. I give to him the third part of my real property herein devised to my wife during her natural life two thirds of my negroes is to go to my Son with this condition he is to have the use of them during his natural life and at his death I give and bequeath them to his children except a boy called Morrison I give to my Son William Henderson to pay a debt of one hundred and fifty dollars promised and due to Henderson & Andrew Son of George Bridwell and my said Son is to maintain the said negro woman Anais after my death during her natural life I have had my will written so as to suit my own views as to the propriety and justice of disposing my property and my wife having no issue my desire is that no one shall attempt to alter or intermeddle with its provisions after my death. I appoint my Son William Henderson executor of my last will and testament witness my hand and Seal this 7th day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty five. Signed Sealed in the presence of three witnesses William Henderson

John F. Henry
James Henry
William Grayson

Hamontre
William

I William H. Hamontre of Blount County and State of Tennessee being weak of body but of sound mind and of good memory do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner following as to what worldly estate it hath pleased God to bless me with me with after the discharge of all my last debts I give and bequeath as follows, first my wife is that my wife Patience Hamontre be and remain in full possession of the farm and improvements where I now live and also the household furniture and that she have her maintenance on the same during her natural life and at her decease that my two sons Jacob and Jesse Hamontre be the heirs and possessors of said farm to them and their heirs forever to my wife and above named