Hitch
Elmer

I Elmer Hitch of the County of Blount and State of Tennessee being very sick and weak in body but of perfect mind and memory calling unto mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die do make and ordain this my last will and testament that is to say I desire that my body be decently buried after which I wish my executors to see as much of my personal property as can conveniently be shared and apportion the money arising from said sale to the payment of all my just debts I would then not be found a sufficient of the personal property to satisfy all just debts then I desire my executors further to divide off my hundred acres of land on the lower end of my tract whereon I now live beginning with Stephens line and running to the Creek and sell the same at public sale in a credit of twelve months as the law directs and when collected apportion the said money or so much thereof as may be necessary to the payment of any remainder of just debts that may remain after the appropriation of the proceeds of my property - Should all this prove insufficient I then leave it to them with my executors to select from any part of the balance of my farm having a due regard to the interests of my family when it can be best shon ed as much more of my land as may be necessary and expose to sale in like manner until all my just debts are fully satisfied I also bequeath to my wife Lucinda all the balance of my real and personal estate to remain in her possession and by her enjoyed during her natural life the family to be maintained in the place. I also direct that at my death and bequeath to my three youngest Sons Archibald Hitch Elmer
