David

February 1841 / Jesse Kerr Jr.

I do hereby certify that I have heard the within contents of the last will and testament of my husband David Kerr Deed read and that I am fully satisfied that it should be done as I think it was his desire to make that kind of a distribution of his estate from what he had previously told me and for that reason and for my own satisfaction I gave my full assent to it given under my hand this 25th day of February 1841.
