

Maradek
William

William Maradek of the County of Blount and State of Tennessee on this fifth day of the fourth month one thousand eight hundred and eleven as wake and ordain this my last will and Testament in the manner following that is to say I first forgive my last debts to be paid; second I do give all my property and plantation to my wife Elizabeth Maradek for the purpose of raising my younger children, and it is further my will that if she should marry that my children should have their proportionable part of my Estate agreeable to the judgment of my Executors and finally I do appoint my wife Elizabeth Maradek my Executor to trust my last will and Testament to act under the direction of James Jones and Hugh Mackay whom I appointed witnesses to my will. Distinct witnesses chosen I have set my hand and seal the day and date above written 3rd Durham
att'd 3rd Daniel Durham 3rd Thomas Jones
William Maradek

Means
William

In the name of God Amen William Means of Blount County and State of Tennessee being of perfect mind and memory do declare as follows on this fifth day of December in the year of our Lord 1811 make and publish this my last will and Testament in the manner following that is to say I allow all my lawful and just debts to be paid; I will and bequeath to my wife Sarah the bay horse and saddle the mare, and her living of the lower end of the place while she lives and her bed and clothes and the third of the sheep; I will and bequeath fifty dollars to my daughter Cassie and a calf of Pepp's Man and the tubest and the big kettle and the loom and her bed and clothes and wearing belts and her saddle two cows and calves and two third of the sheep; I will and bequeath unto Mary the small Cornetts and balls contribution I will and bequeath unto my daughter Elis about two books Dodridge and Brothers Regal of Palace - Fair and bequeath unto my son James two Books Benett's America on the continent; I will and bequeath unto my son William ten Books Latham on Temptation and the life of George Carver; I will and bequeath unto my daughter Margaret the small Mair and saddle her bed and her clothes and two cows and two calves and the third of the sheep and the remainder of the household furniture divided equally between the old woman and Sarah and Mary and the two dollars to Margaret and John and Margaret John living their living of the place while I will and bequeath unto my loving son John a mound and fifty acres of land running a straight line across the upper end of the place abutting at both ends and the half of the farming tools a black man and saddle and a gun of iron

Means
William

and bequeath unto my son Conrad the lower end of the place and the pump horse and his saddle and the wagon is to be between John and Conrad while living to George and if John should die the plantation the wagon horses and saddle, a two year old heifer to John and a sparkling heifer to Conrad and Conrad is to have a bushel and a half of Rye and yearly and two acres of Cotton ground yearly, and the money that is left after all lawful debts are paid goes to the interest of the land and last is to have his living of the lower end of the place and I hereby make and ordain my friends James McKim and William Gault Executors of this my last will and Testament in witness whereof the said William Means have to this my last will and Testament set my hand and seal the day and year above written Signed Sealed and Published and declared by the said

William Means
Mrs. Means the Testator of his last will and Testament in the presence of us who were present at the time of signing and sealing thereby & intended before signed David McKim &
Patrick Cutler &

State of Tennessee
Blount County 3rd December Session 1811

Then was the execution of the within will proven in open Court by David McKim and Patrick Cutler and admitted to record, A testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal affixed my private seal in witness of this my seal of office as of this 29th day of December 1811 and 36 years of American Independence
Houston H. B.

Haskell
Huey

In the name of God Amen Hugh Haskell of the State of Tennessee and County of Blount being sick and weak in body but finding my mind strong and my judgment sound and calling to my friends of make and the certainty of death as think it my duty and I do hereby make and constitute this my last will and Testament, I express, I give and bequeath my soul to God and my body to the dust the funeral charges with all my just debts to be paid out of my estate. I am I give and bequeath the remainder of my estate both real and personal to my beloved wife Anne Haskell to be used at her discretion for the use of religious schooling and education amongst the children as she may see proper this power to remain with her while she remains my widow at which time (should it take place) my Executors hereafter to be named will proceed to sell out my Estate except the land that to be divided in the following manner viz the place on which I live I give to my son John the lower place to my