appear by reference to my books & to my daughter Susan I leave the sum of six hundred dollars in property to my daughter Susan & also leave to my black woman Jane and her three children viz. Alura and Abbin, & to my son James I leave my black boy Harris to my son John I leave my black boy Agnerney, to my son William I leave my black, biser and foot, to my son Robert I leave my two black ones, Daniel and Ben. I allow my yellow boy to be free at my death. I allow my yellow man Ben to stay on the farm to assist in raising my children for the term of five years and at the expiration of that period I allow him to be free provided in the opinion of my Executors his orderly and regular conduct is such as would warrant or deserve his freedom. To my little Grand Daughter Martha Jane Caldwell I leave my black girl Fanny. The balance of my estate I wish to be equally divided among my four sons, James John William and Robert so as to give to each one an equal share in the same. I desire a possible my son James has already received one thousand dollars of his share of my estate including the boy above named. The plantation on which I now live I wish divided in the following manner I leave all the land lying west South and north of the Creek together with the mill and water privileges and the remainder of the water, so as not to burden any of the Springs to my son James to run down the Creek to the fork then up the Saw mill Creek to the road leading to Tomlinsons or Andersons. I leave with that road to the extent of my Survey in that direction. I also leave to my son James the whole of my any land plantation to be so divided as to give to each a fair division of timber. The balance of the farm in which I live to my son John together with the other half, my dry land place I also leave to my son John my wagon and four pair of Horses with two mares two Cows and two Sows plus and two Corn Barrows also all my black Smith Tools. I leave to my sons William and Robert my nine mile farm. I allow my Executors to set a fair estimate on all my property and to give to each of my children as fair and equal division of my property as possible that is among my four sons. I allow my little sons William and Robert to be raised by my son John on the farm and for this I allow him Five hundred dollars more than the others he must have as much of the Stock as will be necessary to raise the family which is to be estimated and considered as so much of the five hundred dollars to be allowed him. I allow my Executors to sell my Plover farm and the proceeds to go to William and Robert. I wish the rents of my nine mile farm to be applied to the educating William and Robert. I wish them to get a good education. Should my Executors unanimously agree that it would be for the benefit of my two little sons to sell my nine mile plantation and my Plover place they are hereby authorized empowered to do so and I do hereby ratify them with power and authority to sell and convey the same but they are not to make too great a sacrifice in the money or proceeds of these farms I wish part to, income for the benefit of William and Robert, my fault Stock and cash due me on bonds or notes when collected I wish divided amongst my children my two daughters Betsey Thomson and Susan to have their share in proportion to the sums allotted them and to present said understanding on this point. The each part of my estate is to be so divided that my four sons will receive as much large or important of the each as they are allowed larger portions of property. Altho I have named to each of my sons their particular property should my Executors find it impossible to give to each one equal share in that account I hereby authorize them to make such change in the property as will enable them to make them all as nearly equal as possible. Still allowing to the who may raise and take care of my children, Five hundred dollars more than the others and should it so happen that my son John whose agree to the first part of this will to raise my little sons William and Robert and for it to be allowed Five hundred dollars, should he not be willing to undertake the same or at any time refuse to attend to and raise them then James may if he will undertake in John's place and in that case James is to have all their division of property. David Rogers is that is left to John and John is then to take all that property land left to James, as a reward to my daughter Betsey Thomson for her attention to me in my sickness and as a testimonial of my affection to her for her services to my self and my two little sons who may receive much of her attention in their raising. I leave to her my yellow Girl babe six and above the fifteen hundred dollars above named. I allow my children to be fed and clothed on the farm as heretofore. I allow my daughter Susan in addition to other allowance two beds bed Steads and furniture one Plover and one China press with a portion of the furniture. To my little sons I leave bedstead and furniture to each and to my son John one bedstead and furniture. Having heretofore donated to Porter & Co. dammy half an acre of land on which the Trustees have built a house I hereby authorize my Executors to convey the same running along the road as design in a parallelogram I leave to my son James my Secretary and Book Case with an equal proportion with my other sons of the library. I leave to my son John my Clock and Case. To avoid any difficulty or dispute I allow and wish it understood that my son James to whom is left the mill and the dam of the water of the Creek is also to have the rights of the banks of the dam for the purpose of digging or repairing the mill dam all my other household or kitchen furniture and other removable property not specified or named after all the foregoing bequests I allow to be divided among my four sons and my daughter Susan. I appoint and appoint my sons James P. Montgomery and John Montgomery Guardians for my little sons William and Robert. I hereby name and appoint as my Executors of this my last will and testament, my son James P. Montgomery my son in law Jesse Thomson, Doct. Samuel Price and James Berry and having full confidence in the integrity of these my Executors I do not wish to impose upon them the burden of that kind of Security Slips or Bonds now required by law. It is therefore my wish that the Court require of them nothing more than the Oaths required by Law. In testimony of the foregoing I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my Seal this twenty seventh day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty
