

Montgomery John Interlined before Sign on the other Side in the Eleventh Space from bottom the words (five hundred) also interlined in the other side before Signed in the 11th Space from the bottom to the words (five hundred) and also in the 11th Space from the top from the words (one of Robert) witness William Ford Robert McQuinn

* Mary Patrick State of Tennessee Blount County, in the name of God I Patrick Mary being weak in body but sound in judgment do bequeath my body to the dust and my soul to God that gave it and constitute this my last will and testament. Catherine Mary my lawful and wedded wife Eldest from my bed several years ago I have bequeathed unto her twenty five cents Mary Ann Kelley Mary my lawful daughter twenty five cents James Henry my lawful son the plantation I now live on I bequeath to him at my decease also a Farm house and four pigs of mixed Gatto And do hereby constitute and appoint James Henry and John Boyd my executors and administrators of this my last will and testament Hereunto I have affixed my hand and seal this tenth second of October one thousand eight hundred and eight and I declare that my son that lives with me is under the disposal of John Boyd and I remain William Hamilton Sealed and Signed by the presence of J. D. Robinson
James Hamilton

Meigs John

Interlined I with one thousand Eight hundred and fifteen I John Meigs of the State of Tennessee and County of Blount do hereby make my last will and testament in the manner and form following that is - On the first place after all my just debts is paid I give to my wife Agnes Meigs the whole care of this farm and possession of the house as usual during the minority of my sons William and John Meigs my sons and also to be at her direction during her life or widowhood life and my adder more and a new adder to be purchased out of my estate, also one hundred dollars in cash for in case she should marry it is my will that she should have two cows and calves with a third part of the household and move off the farm the negro Girl to be disposed of as she wants or sold but when I say my wife shall have the custody of my affairs I mean that she have all my tools for the use of the farm in she should the Smith tools and Stock of every kind except such as is here otherwise disposed of - I give to my son James Meigs the tract of land he now lives on to him and his heirs forever also a tract of land lying in the other side of the county known by Bartons place to him and his heirs forever. I give my daughter Ann one hundred dollars in a horse and Cattle. I give to my sons William Meigs and John Meigs the farm I now live on and I declare the farm known as the Edwards Farm and farm to be divided equally between them William the year and John the horse and which I give to them and their heirs forever but should William who is of age choose to settle on the other farm I allow him

Meigs John

me third of the whole stock not otherwise disposed of and a third part of farming utensils between an equal share of the Smith tools by his appointing an equal share of the expense in upholding the tools. The other two thirds to be my wife Agnes Meigs and John Meigs for the use of the lower farm with John Meigs of age and if the two agree to live together to continue jointly between them but if not John is to build himself a house and have one third of the farming utensils and Stock then William and him to contribute an equal share for a sufficient maintenance of their mother and Stock through life - I also give my daughter Polly Meigs my young cows bay Philly and saddle two cows and two beds such as her mother thinks fit to give her the plantation from which my wife and John to be sold or rented. And if rented the proceeds to be applied for the paying of the just debts of that land or sold the money arising therefrom to be applied to the paying of the just debts of the land of William and John equally. If in case my wife Agnes Meigs should survive after the decease of my wife Agnes Meigs it is not my will she should go out of the family or should she have any increase that her and them should in equally divided interest with John and Polly Meigs - And lastly I hereby constitute and appoint my friends John Hamilton and Robert McQuinn Executors of this my last will and testament hereby revoking all other former wills or testaments by me heretofore made in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this day and year above written
John Meigs
William Hamilton
Robert McQuinn

Signed Sealed published and declared to be the last will and testament of the above named John Meigs at the presence of us who at his request and in his presence have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses to the same

* Margaret McChesney being weak in body but of sound mind hereby in all probability on my last bed of sickness have made this my last will and testament as follows that is I appoint James Berry my Executor and J. G. Meigs and bequeath to my Sisters Patsy McChesney Mary McChesney and Betsy McChesney the sum of Sixty dollars each to be paid them by my executor within three years after my decease my said executor being allowed to retain the said several sums until that time expires without being accountable for interest - I give for the use of my sister Polly Meigs Sixty Dollars allowing my executor to pay the same to her in such way and at such times as he may think her necessities require or in case of her death to divide the same among her daughters at his own discretion. I also leave to my daughter Belle one feather bed and clothing provided she should marry in this County I leave to the Southern and Western Theological Seminary located at Maryville the sum of forty dollars one fourth of which to be paid annually after my decease until the whole is paid and lastly after the debts of my estate are paid and my funeral expenses are discharged I leave the balance of my estate of every description entirely to my sister Rebecca C. Berry in testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 22nd day of March 1824
Margaret C. McChesney

Witness
Signed by direction of Testator published and declared as and for her last will and testament in presence of us who are