Dillard
John

March 2nd 1835
I, John Dillard, being firstly desirous that shortly I must resign my seat to God and bring in perfect mind and memory to make this my last will and testament respecting my temporarily Estate namely to leave to my beloved wife Jane her living on my land during her life time together with all my household furniture to be disposed of as she may think proper at her death all my property and all the she may have to William and Joseph B. Guling wagon and Carting farming utensils And of the said tract of land my son George to have one hundred and twenty acres of the upper land including his improvement it being equal to two fourths of the Negro family, my son Peter one hundred acres of the lower and including his instrument being also his part of the sugar family am and have made a division of the black & white parts past to Robert Thomas Alexander, John, and James & before each will be satisfied in complying with my judgment in that case as being as equal as I could do so for myself and back to former have given freedom. I hope we are all agreed to make what my wife told me was my duty of all that have any of Color in possession and trust my children will consider it so and follow the footsteps of their father and keep now slaves longer than they pray for them racing and expenses as for the two black girls to Betsy and Sally as their part of the black family then part by living out or keeping hind out or with them in the house for their part in the family if it will be complied with by their husbands to permit it to be so if not to be hired out until the arrive at the age of twenty five years then to be set at liberty by the Executives of my estate and by no means to be sold like the brute beast, and to my daughter Polly a good horse or morn worth eighty dollars for trille and saddle at ready purchased and with the consent of my first wife Elizabeth if agreeable to him immediately I have my negro ready to Polly under her service to the age of twenty five years then to be set at liberty if he may choose to leave the family if not to remain with them during life otherwise to make her choice to William and Joseph all my horses cows and hogs for the use of the family and all my just debts to be paid out of that property which will be but trifling as for my old wife Anna is now at liberty, if she may choose to live with the family after my decease to have her living as she has heretofore done without cost by assistance to do what in her power to perform. I also constatale my son James Tedford and Robin Dickerson Executors of this my last will being confident of their probity and ability to execute and as hereby sign and affirme this my last will remembrace I have set my hand
