

November, 1900.

after my death as possible, out of my money that I may die possessed of or may first come into the hands of my wife Rachel Moore. Secondly, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Rachel Moore all of my lands that I control at my death, the rest of her natural life.

Thirdly, I direct after the death of wife furtherly I direct that my personal property be divided equally between my two sons, John Riley Moore and James William Moore.

Fourthly, I direct that my lands be divided among my two sons and Mary S. Tyler heirs and Lucinda Frenches heirs. furtherly I direct James William Moore shall have thirty acres of land beginning at a stone corner on the east side on the line of Sebe Lane running west to a ^{stone} corner on the east side of the apple orchard running north east to a stone corner on the Smith line, taking in all the timber on the west side, taking in all the buildings. furtherly I direct John Riley Moore shall have thirty five acres on the north east end commencing at a stone corner on the line of Sebe Lane's farm, running west to a stone corner on the east side of woods, running north east to the Smith farm, furtherly I direct the balance of my land, twenty five acres, laying between James William Moore and John Riley Moore land shall be sold and the money divided equally between Lucinda Frenches heirs and Mary S. Tyler heirs.

November, 1900.

Lastly, I do hereby nominate and appoint my two sons John Riley Moore and James William Moore, executors, in witness whereof I do to this my last will. Set my hand this the twentieth of October, One thousand nine hundred.

L. H. ^{his} _{mark} Moore.

Signed in presence and we have subscribed our names here in the presence of the testator this October 20th 1900.

Sebe Lane.

Ignatius Jones.

James W. Barnes.

In the name of God, amen, I, James W. Barnes of the County of Blount and State of Tennessee do hereby make publish and declare this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all wills by me heretofore made.

1st. I direct my executors hereinafter named to pay my funeral expenses and all my just debts and liabilities as soon as can conveniently be done after my decease.

2nd. I give and bequeath to my wife Edger C. Barnes, my gold watch and what money I have on hands and my real estate to her and my son Camel L. Barnes and at her death all the real estate go to my son Camel L. Barnes by him paying what debts are unpaid on the real estate now in my possession.

3^d. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my son Camel L. Barnes and John P. Harper, Executors of this my last will and Testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed seal, this Nov 9th 1900.

James ^{his} ~~Wm~~ Barnes

Witness Sam Swan.

Witness John L. Harper.

December. 1900.

Richard A. Nuchols.

I Richard A. Nuchols, of Blount County, in the state of Tennessee, do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made.

1st. I direct that all my just debts, including my burial expenses be paid out of any money or personal property, which I may have on hand at the time of my death.

2nd. I give, will and bequeath to my beloved wife, Sarah J. Nuchols, all my house hold goods, fixtures and furniture, also my entire stock of merchandise, consisting of dry goods, groceries, hardware and tinware, also whatever amount of money may be on deposit, to my credit in the Bank of Blount County, at the time of my death, also, the entire remainder of my personal property, consisting of two mares, four head of cattle, thirteen head of hogs, one wagon, one buggy, one hay rake, one mowing machine and an undivided

December. 1900.

one fourth share or interest in a wheat drill, and all plow and other farming implements, and all other personal property of whatever kind or description, which I may own at the time of my death.

3rd. I will, bequeath and devise to my beloved wife, Sarah J. Nuchols, for and during the term of her natural life.

And at the death of the said Sarah J. Nuchols, said real estate shall descend in equal portions to my children, Ulysses H. S. Nuchols, Elijah B. Nuchols, Malinda M. Nuchols, and Grace M. Nuchols, and be equally divided among said children.

Lastly, I nominate and appoint my beloved wife, Sarah J. Nuchols, to be executrix of this my last will and testament. And reposing full faith and implicit confidence in my beloved wife, I direct and request, that she be, by the Court, exempt from executing bond for the faithful performance of her duties as said executrix, and be allowed to execute the trust without bond.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 12 day of Nov. 1900.

R. A. Nuchols.

Signed by the said Richard A. Nuchols, as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, the undersigned, who, in his presence and at his request, sign as subscribing witnesses, the day and date above written.

S. L. Nuchols.
S. B. Mc Gill.