Know all men by these presents that I Thomas J. Beals being of sound mind and disposing memory and knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death do make and publish this my last will and testament revoking all wills by me at any time heretofore made.

1st. It is my will that my executor pay all my just debts, (except my immediate funeral expenses) out of any moneys on hands at my death or the first money coming into the hands of my executor.

2nd I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary E. Beals One thousand dollars in money or negotiable notes out of my personal estate and direct that my executor pay the same to her out of any money or negotiable notes coming into his hands after complying with my bequest in article first in this will. And in addition to this one thousand dollars, the following property that is now on hands, one silver tea set, one set silver knives and forks, one set fine plates, one solid dish and other such dishes as she may want out of the table ware on hands at the time of my death; what bedding she brought to my home and all that has been made by her since our marriage; all the furniture that was brought here or bought by her since our marriage: some of which is one organ, three rocking chairs, pictures, carpets, window shades and curtains, and any other articles of household or kitchen use bought by her or for her since our marriage. But it is understood and agreed that this will giving my wife the one thousand dollars and other personal property as set forth herein is in lieu of and preferable to any interest she may might have under the law in any real estate I may own or be seized and possessed of. It is further agreed that out of the money herein willed that my wife aforesaid at her own wish and will is to pay my immediate funeral expenses.

3rd I will that my executor sell all my personal property not heretofore disposed of and all the realty I now hold, or any part of same that I may own at my death, either publicly or privately, for cash, part cash and twelve and (12) months time as he may deem to the interest of my estate. Said real estate consisting of one farm in the 5th Dist of Blount County Tennessee and known as the farm I bought from David Polan and containing one hundred and eighty six acres the same more or less and adjoining the lands of J. C. Brown, Samuel Brown, Misers and others, and on which my son Samuel H. Beals now resides. My brick house residence where I now reside and the land bought therewith from A. T. Hackney, adjoining the Friendsville Mill property and others.

in the 4th Dist. of Blount County Tennessee and on Hackney street, the house and lot adjoining the said residence property last named that I bought from G.V. Osborne, including the lots I bought from Dr. J.W. Gothard et alks. both of said lots fronting on College st. and being in the 4th Dist of Blount County Tennessee. What is known as the Rebekka Jones lot, adjoining the brick residence and mill property aforesaid and in the 4th Dist of Blount County Tennessee. The three lots known as the store house property adjoining the property of the Friendsville Mill John L. Hackney and others, this last named property includes the store house and a small residence, and being in the 4th Dist of Blount County Tennessee. I direct my executor to make sale of these several pieces of real estate as afore set forth and to make deeds therefor, (or so much of the same as I may own at the time of my death.

4th After complying with my bequests heretofore made it is my will that the residue of my estate shall be divided equally between my children George F. Beals, James A. Beals, Mary, Mariah M. French, Ulisses S. Grant Beals and Samuel H. Beals, share and share alike.

5th I constitute and appoint T.F. Gardner executor of this my will conferring on him the authority to sell the property herein named or any part that I may own at my death and to make title thereto.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this October 16th 1905.

Maryville, Tenn. March 28, 1910

I, Henry L. George, being of sound mind, do hereby make and publish this as my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills by me made at any time.

First: I desire that all my funeral expenses be paid first out of my estate, also all my other just debts.

Second. I do hereby give and bequeath the remainder of my estate after the above debts are satisfied, to my mother Mrs. W.A. George to have and to hold and to do with as she sees fit without restitution.

I do hereby nominate and appoint my mother Mrs. W.A. George as Executrix of this my last will and testament to serve without bond and waiving all settlements as required by law.

I further desire that my present partner Jas. W. Miller shall be given the privilege of buying my present interest in our partnership if he shall pay as much as any other prospective buyer.

Signed in the presence of Frank M. George, Minnie McGhee Kennedy and J. Merritt DeArmond, whom I have asked to sign as witnesses in my presence this 28th day of March 1910.

Henry L. George

Signed and sealed in our presence and the presence of each of us by the request of Henry L. George this 28 day of March 1910.
