M. H. Gamble,
Jno. C. Crawford.

Arthur E. Brown.

I Arthur E. Brown, being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and publish this as my last will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void all others by me at any time made.

1st I direct that my funeral expenses and all my just debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any money that I may die possessed of, or may first into the hands of my Executor.

2d. My half interest in the home now owned jointly by my Sister Ann and myself E. Brown I give and bequeath to my said Sister Ann E. Brown and my daughter Elizabeth Wear during their lives, and should only one of them survive me then I give to that one, the one half interest owned by me, with all appurtenances including the household effects, to be used by them jointly should both survive me, and if only one, then to used by her, this during their lives.

3rd. All other personal property of whatever kind, including money, notes, certificates of deposit due bills &c, I give and bequeath to my sister Ann E. Brown and my daughter Elizabeth Wear during their lives to be used in common by them or either, should one die before the other, and at the death of both, whatever may be remaining of the personal property and also the one-half interest in the Home place I give to my three grand children Joseph Brown, Edgar Brown and Nellie Brown, who shall share equally in the property and effects left of mine after the death of my sister Ann E. Brown and my daughter Elizabeth Wear.

I hereby appoint William Wine Executor of my will, and do not require that he execute bond nor make settlement with the Court, having full confidence in his honesty and integrity.

In testimony whereof I do to this my will set my hand, this the twenty fifth day of March Nineteen Hundred and Eight.

Arthur E. Brown.
