Be it remembered that at a regular term of the County Court began and heard for the County and State aforesaid, at the Court House in the Town of Dan-bridge, Tenn, on this the 3rd day of September 1894, it being the 1st Monday of said month. Present and presiding His Honor T. N. Williams Judge etc. when the following proceedings were had and entered of record, to wit:

Saturday September 22nd 1894

Court met pursuant to adjournment, present and presiding

His Honor, T. N. Williams Judge etc. when the following proceedings were had and entered of record, to wit:

In the matter of the last Will and Testament of Henry S. Galtlett dec'd. A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Henry S. Galtlett dec'd. was presented in open Court for probate, whereupon came J. D. Murphy & J. H. England the subscribing witnesses thereto, who after being duly sworn, depose and say, that they were personally acquainted with Henry S. Galtlett during his life time, that they saw him sign and heard him acknowledge the execution of the said paper writing to have been done by him for the purpose therein expressed and contained, and at the time of so doing he was of sound mind & disposing Memory that they signed said paper writing at his request, and in his presence and in presence of each other. The Court doth therefore adjudge the facts to be as above stated, and that said paper writing is the last will and testament of said Henry S. Galtlett dec'd. that the same has been duly probated and that it be admitted to record upon the record of wills in this Court.

It appears from said will that B. S. Galtlett is nominated therein as the Executor of said will.

Be it therefore accepted said trust and entered into bond in the legal sum of Fifteen Thousand Dollars with M. E. Mathe B. & Julia Galtlett as his sureties thereon, said bond was examined and allowed by the Court and he was qualified as the law directs & letters testamentary were accordingly issued to him.

Last Will and Testament of Henry S. Galtlett dec'd.

I, Henry S. Galtlett of New Market, Tenn. make and publish this my last will and testament revoking all others wills heretofore made by me.
