I, Thomas C. Clark of Blount County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament and I hereby revoke all former wills by me, at any time made.

First: I bequeath to my two sons, Samuel P. Clark and John M. Clark, my farm where I now reside, situated in the 9th Civil District of Blount County, Tennessee, and charge them with the care, support and maintenance of my beloved wife (their mother) Mary E. Clarke, during her natural life, in a manner commensurate with her present manner of life; and also with the payment at her death of all her funeral expenses and the placing at her grave suitable tombstones, to mark her last resting place.

Second: I direct that my Executors hereinafter named shall, out of the personal estate of which I may be seized and possessed, pay all my debts and funeral expenses, and place suitable tombstones at my grave: and the balance, of my personal estate, they shall divide equally between my three children, viz. Zerilda Josephene Ambrister, Samuel P. Clark and John M. Clarke: I have heretofore given to my daughter, Zerilda J. Ambrister what I consider to be an equal portion of my estate, which together with the divide of my personal estate herein directed will make her equal with my two sons.

Third: I hereby appoint my two sons, Samuel P. and John M. Clark, the Executors to this my last will and testament, hereby releasing them from making bond, or taking an oath as such executors- or of making reports to, or settlement with any of the Courts of my state.

D E C E M B E R , 1 9 0 5 .

In testimony hereof I hereunto subscribe my name the day of September 1895

T. C. Clark.

Signed and acknowledged, in our presence, and we subscribe our names hereto as witnesses, at the request of and in the presence of the testator. The day of Sept. 1895.
