JUNE TERM 1912.

P. H. Clark.

Life is uncertain, and death uncertain, and I will make this my last will, and testament.

First:- I have already given to my son James R. Clark his portion of my estate.

Second:- I have also given my son Philander H. Clark his portion of my estate.

Third:- I therefore will all of my estate, real, and personal to my wife, Margaret J. Clark, during her life, and at her death to be divided equally between my two sons Robert H. Clark, and Thomas E. Clark, and they shall pay to my daughter Mary Ann Wrinkle the sum of Two hundred dollars, ($200.00) if she is living, but if she should die without issue, they are released from this obligation.

Fourth:- At the death of my wife my sons Robert H. and Thomas E. Clark shall pay all funeral expenses, and put up suitable monuments to her, and to my first wife Mary Ann Clark.

Fifth:- My sons, Robert H., and Thomas E. Clark, shall be the executors of my will, and shall not be required to make bond, or report to any court.

P. H. Clark
