I Sam Frank Cowan being of a sound mind, but weak physically, do make and publish this as my last Will and Testament hereby revoking any other will by me at any time heretofore made.

First: I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be first paid out of my estate.

Second: I will, give devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Maggie Cowan all of my property that I may be possessed of at the time of my death, of every kind and description, personal real and mixed to be hers absolutely.

I do this fully realizing that she will need the property that I may have to raise and educate our children and feel assured that she will do so as far as her means will permit.

Third: I hereby appoint my beloved wife, the Executrix of this my will and release her from making any bond and from making settlements with Clerk of County Court.

This the 29th day of March 1905

S F Cowan

At the request of S. F. Cowan and in his presence and in the presence of each other we sign and attest this instrument as the last will and testament of Sam Frank Cowan
