

December, 1898.

Third: I give and devise all my real estate including my interest in the farm on which I now live, as well as any estate, real or personal that may be coming to me or my estate, hereafter from any source, to my said brother James R. Hall.

Fourth: I appoint my brother, James R. Hall, the Executor of this my last will and testament; and having implicit confidence in him, I hereby relieve him from giving bond as required by law.

In witness whereof I hereunto have hereunto set my hand and subscribed my name on this the 12th day of August, 1898.
Thomas H. Hall.

Signed by the said Thomas H. Hall as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us the undersigned, who, at his request and in his sight and presence, have signed our names hereto as attesting witnesses on the day and date above written.
A. E. Brown
J. H. Lamson.

Will of. Wilmon W. Gibbs

In the Name of God, Amen. I, Wilmon W. Gibbs of the County of Blount and State of Tennessee, being sick of body but of sound and disposing mind and memory, and knowing the uncertainty of life, and the importance of settling our earthly affairs before death do make, ordain, and establish, this my last will and testament; revoking all former wills and agreements heretofore made by me with any other persons. My body I consign to its mother earth and will that it be decently interred. My soul I commend to the God who gave, and the blood of Jesus who redeemed it.

1st. Of all; I will, that of my real estate, and personal property after my death; that all my just and honest debts together with my funeral expenses be paid and discharged.

December, 1898.

Then whatever may remain of real or personal property, money, or notes, goods or chattels. I give and bequeath to my daughter Alta J. Finger for the good and kind treatment during my last illness and the final disposition of my body. My other heirs Martha L. Moton William Silas Gibbs, Rasmus F. Gibbs John S. Gibbs, Steven P. Gibbs and James Marion Gibbs, have all been given and provided for, as far as my earthly means have afforded in the passed.

I appoint Adam Finger as my Executor and authorize him to take charge of all my effects and see that I am well and amply provided for while I live, and that my will is executed as herein set forth, not requiring him to give any bond or security.

In witness I hereunto set my hand and seal - this 15th day Oct., 1898.
William W. Gibbs

Witness.

G. E. Bowman
F. R. Hill.

Will of John Carrier.

I, John Carrier of Maryville Blount County, Tenn. do make and publish this as my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void any and all wills by me heretofore made.

First: I will and direct that my Executor to be hereafter named pay any debts I may owe at the time of my death, together with my funeral expenses out of any money or property I may own at the time of my death.

Second: I will and bequeath all the property of every kind, character and description, that I now own or may own at time of my death to my wife Mary W. Carrier, for her support during her life should she out live me, and at her death it is my will that what property remains of every kind be converted into money by my Executor, on the best terms he can and one half of the same I will and bequeath to my daughter Margaret M. Kirk if she is then living and should she be dead it is my will that the same be equally divided between her heirs; and the remaining one half of said fund. I will and bequeath to my son John M. Currier, if living, if not to his heirs.

December, 1898.

Third: I hereby nominate and appoint John M. Currier as my executor to this my last will.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal this 16th day of Nov. 1898.

Witness.

Ben Cunningham.

Thos M. Brown.

Signed, sealed and acknowledged by the testator in our presence the day above written and at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, we hereunto set our names as subscribing witnesses.

Ben Cunningham.

Thos M. Brown.

Will of Sarah Wilburn.

Last will of Sarah Wilburn.

Mayville, Tennessee, Oct. 28th 1897

I, Sarah Wilburn will and convey all my lands & everything I have after my death to my husband John H. Wilburn said land is situated in the 5th civil District of Blount County Tennessee.

Witness

E. L. Melkinson

Wase Wilburn.

Sarah Wilburn.

January, 1899.

Will of Abram Hartill.

State of Tennessee, Knox County.

To Whom it may concern:

Know that I, Abram Hartill of the State of Tennessee, and County of Knox, being of sound mind and of my own free will and accord do make this as my last will and testament.

First: I will and bequeath to my daughter, Martha J. Price her heirs and assigns, the following described property, to wit: One lot and all appurtenances to the same belonging, situated in the town of Louisville Blount County Tennessee on the south side of Main Street, the same being known as my homestead and was deeded to me by John Gillespie about the year 1836 and contains one quarter of an acre, also to her; Martha J. Price and her heirs, I bequeath and will, one lot in the town of Louisville Blount County Tennessee, situated and being directly opposite the lot described above and is on the North side of Main Street in said town - said lot contains one quarter of an acre and was deeded to me by John Gillespie about the year, 1836. Also to her, Martha J. Price her heirs and assigns I will and bequeath, one lot in the said town of Louisville Blount County situated on the North side of Main Street and known as the 'Barnett Property' and was deeded to me by Jane and James Gillespie on the 12th day of Sept. 1843. This lot contains one quarter of an acre.

Second. I will and bequeath to my son Joseph E. Heartill his heirs and assigns - the following described property, to wit: One lot in the town of Louisville Blount County Tennessee situated and described as follows: lying on the Northside of Main Street and west of and adjoining the lot bequeathed to my daughter M. J. Price and is the West part of what is known as the "Shop Lot" this lot was deeded to me by Hiram Heartill Nov. 27th, 1854 and contains one quarter of an acre.

Third. I will and bequeath to my son John R. Heartill his heirs and assigns, one lot in the town of Louisville Blount County Tennessee, situated and described as follows to wit: being on the North side of Main Street and immediately east of and adjoining the lot known as the "Barnett Place" which I have bequeathed to my daughter M. J. Price.

Fourth - I will and bequeath to my son J. A. Heartill and his heirs and assigns - one lot in the town of Louisville Blount Tennessee