I, William S. McTeer, being in frail health, but of sound mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament, that it to say,

First:- After the payment of my last sickness and funeral, I desire that one fourth of what I may die seized and possessed, be set apart and I hereby give and bequeath the same to the child or children of my son Will C. McTeer, but from this amount I desire to be paid six dollars which was borrowed from Will A. McTeer to send my said son to school and has not been repaid and about twelve dollars which he owes to J.H. Greer, unless he shall repay said sum. I give to this to his wife and children Ruby Rosa Lee McTeer now born, and any other to be born to him, and if necessary to protect the same to said children that some good and sage guardian be appointed to take and use the same to the best advantage of the children, regardless of my said son, who I desire shall not be allowed to handle the same in raising the child or children.

Second:- I give and bequeath one fourth of what I may be seized and possessed to my son Jesse Henry McTeer.

Third:- I give and bequeath all the rest and remainder of what I may be seized and possessed to my beloved wife and my two daughters, to use and control by my wife while she lives, and then divided equally between my two daughters.

In witness whereof I hereunto affix my name of this 15th day of January, 1907.
