JANUARY TERM 1916.

WILL OF E. A. PATTON.

I, S. A. Patton, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this as my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any Will that I may have heretofore made.

FIRST: I direct that all of my just debts be first paid out of any moneys or personal property that may be on hands at the time of my death, including the funeral and burial expenses.

SECOND: I do hereby give and will to my daughter, Ruby Patton, the piano which I have at present in my home.

THIRD: I give and will to my beloved wife, Martha Rebecca Patton the remainder all/ of my property, both real and personal, that I may have at the time of my death, to be hers during her life, and at her death, to be divided among my lawful heirs, according to the law of distribution. I give and will to my wife, Martha Rebecca Patton the absolute right to control any of my personal property, the same as if it were her own. She may sell the same and convert it into money, and, if she deems necessary or so desires, may use both the principal and interest, or any amount thereof for her support.

FOURTH: I direct the Executor of my Will after the death of my wife, Martha Rebecca Patton, to sell the property remaining, either at private or public sale, as he deems best, and divide the same among my heirs, as the law directs. Or, the same may be partitioned in kind or any part thereof, if it can be agreed to among the heirs, or any one representing them.

FIFTH: I hereby nominate and appoint T. F. Broady & Sam Johnson, of Maryville, the Executors of this my last Will and Testament, and hereby give and confer upon the Executors the full power, authority and right to make a deed to any real property that they may sell at a private sale, in as full a manner as I could do if living.
