

4
March 1896

5th I will and bequeath to my grandsons Francis J. Blackney son of George T. Blackney, deceased two hundred dollars in accordance with an agreement made with his father.

6th It is my will that if my sister Sarah Hamner should outlive me, and no provision made for her a home prior to my death that my Executor allow her a home where she is now living, or provide her one somewhere else if to the interest of my estate to do so, during her natural life.

7 After complying with all my bequests heretofore made and the payment of five dollars per annum to the Treasurer of Roanokeville Monthly meeting as long as my estate is in the hands of my Executors which I direct him to do. I will and bequeath the residue of my estate to be equally divided between all my children living and their heirs if not living, Share and Share alike; Viz: L. Isabella Beal, one share; Mary Adeline Bonning, one share, the heirs of my son George T. Blackney, one share and the heir of my son Henry L. Blackney, one share in accordance with the provisions made in article 4 of this will.

8th I constitute and appoint my friend T. R. Lee my Executor, of this my last will and testament giving him full power to sell and discretionary privilege to exercise his judgment both as to the time when and the manner in which said sale shall be made and authority to make title threats when said sale are made.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 22nd day of 11th Month, 1892.

Signed, sealed and acknowledged in our presence

J. F. Beal.
S. L. Jones.

Francis Blackney, (Signature)

Griffitts.

5
April 1896

I, Roland Jenkins Griffitts of the County of Blount, State of Tennessee declare this to be my last will and testament.

- 1st I want all my debt settled
- 2nd I give and bequeath to my sister, Margaret Griffitts, Two dollars.
- 3rd I give and bequeath to Willie Griffitts, One hundred and fifty dollars.
- 4th I give and bequeath to David Harris Griffitts, One hundred and fifty dollars.
- 5th I give and bequeath to Edgar Griffitts, One hundred and fifty dollars
- 6th I give and bequeath the remainder of my estate, for the benefit of poor children, in the County of Blount, and state of Tennessee.

7th The money is to be placed in the "Bank of Blount County," and the interest thereof to be used in buying books for poor children who are not able to furnish themselves with necessary school books.

8th Said interest to be used at any time and place, that the County Superintendent thinks it necessary.

9th And he shall be required to make a report of the amount used, at the same time he makes his Annual report to the County Court.

10th This is not to be executed till thirty days after my death.

11th I appoint William L. Kegley, Esq., Executor of this will.

In testimony whereof, I, Roland Jenkins Griffitts, have hereunto set my hand and seal the eighth day March, 1896.

Roland Jenkins Griffitts

(Signature)

Witness our hands, the eighth day of March, A.D. 1896

Attest. William L. Gardner

B. J. Bingham.

Carr.

May 1896.

I James M. Carr, being of sound mind, and disposing my property as hereby made and publish this my last will and testament revoking and making void all other wills by me at any time made.

First: I have advanced to my beloved daughter, Sarah C. Gillock, Seven hundred and fifty dollars, being her proportionate part of all my property both real and personal.

Second: I have also advanced to my beloved daughter, Margaret