I, Eliza Henry of Maryville, Blount County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and aware of the uncertainty of life, do make and publish this as and for my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all other wills or codicils thereto by me at any time heretofore made.

FIRST,- I direct that all my just debts, if any, including my funeral expenses, be paid.

SECOND,- It is my desire, and I hereby will, give, bequeath and devise unto my beloved sister Rachel Wilson, all of my property both real, personal and mixed, of every kind and description.

THIRD,- If my said sister Rachel Wilson should deem it best to sell or otherwise dispose of my said property, whether the same be real, personal or mixed, or if she should so desire to sell or otherwise dispose of the said property, she shall have full power, authority and right to sell said property and make the necessary deeds therefor.

But in the event my sister Rachel does not sell said property, or in the event any of said property remains in her hands or possession at the time of her death, whatever remains shall descend to and become the property of my sister Mary Rorex and if sister Mary should die before Rachel then it shall become the property of Hannah Roper and if any remains at their death; then it shall descend to the children of my sisters Rachel Wilson and Hannah Roper, and to my nephew Ed Henderson.

FOURTH, I hereby appoint my sister Mary Rorex sole executrix of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 24th day of April 1912.
