

November, 1876

Nathaniel Harris: will.

April 20th 1876.

I Nathaniel Harris of the County of Blount and State of Tennessee do make and publish this my last will and Testament,

1st I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Catherine the farm whereon I reside, it being all the real estate I own and possess to have and hold and use as her own as long as she lives and at her death it shall go to my daughter Hannah S. Harris.

I further will that all the personal property of which I may die seized and possessed shall go to my wife Catherine for her own use as long as she lives and at her death the same shall go to my daughter Hannah S. Harris.

The conditions upon which my daughter Hannah S. Harris is to have said lands above mentioned are as follows:

1st That she pay all expenses arising out of sickness or death of one and my wife Catherine and further that she pay the sum of twenty dollars to all my children except Samuel Harris John Harris and Ellen since the same to be paid as soon as she the said Hannah S. Harris shall dispose of said lands or within two years at most after the death of my wife Catherine.

In testimony whereof I have this day set my hand and seal on day and year first above written.

Attest,

L. D. Johnson

Witness John J. Novack.

Nathaniel ^{his} Harris

Michael Harrison's will.

I, Michael Harrison, being of sound mind and in good health do make and publish this as my last will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling every act done by me at any time made.

I give and bequeath to my son, James M. Harrison, a parcel or tract of land situate, lying and being on the 17th Civil district of Blount County, Tennessee containing (100) One hundred and Sixty acres described as follows. Beginning at a locust corner on the bank of the Little Tennessee river near Pleasant Hill Church running down the river to a red oak corner, thence north to a stake, thence East to a stake thence South with M. M. Wright's line to the beginning.

I also give and bequeath to the said James M. Harrison a parcel or tract of land situate, lying and being in the 17th Civil district of Blount County Tennessee containing One hundred (100) acres joining the one hundred and sixty acres lot on the West, and known as the Bellows place.

In witness whereof, I do to this my will, set my hand, this, the 16th day May, 1873.

Michael Harrison

Signed and published in our presence, and we have subscribed our names hereto in the presence of the testator. This 16th day of May, 1873.

N. H. Harrison

W. C. Milligan.

State of Tennessee, Monroe County.

I, L. A. Hunt, Clerk of the County Court of Monroe County, do hereby certify that the above is a true, perfect and correct copy of the last will and Testament of Michael Harrison, now dead, so far as it in any way affects the title of James M. Harrison, to the lands herein described, and that it is all of said will that in any way has reference to the above described lands, that this was the County in which the testator had his residence at the time of his death, and that the entire will of which this is a part was admitted to probate in the County Court of this County, on the 6th day of August, 1874, and letters of Administration granted thereon. This Aug. 5th, 1876.

L. A. Hunt

Clerk.

January, 1877.

William Jones' will.

I, William Jones of Blount County, Tenn. being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make publish and declare this to be my last will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling every former will by me at any time made.

First: I give and devise to my beloved wife, Ruth Jones all