W. H. Whitlock.

J. W. Cullin.

February 1896.

I, Thomas Hart, of Blount County, Tenn. make this my last will and testament.

Hart.

1st I bequeath to M. L. Hart, my wife all household and kitchen furniture, all the stock of every kind on hand, all supplies on hand, Hack and buggy. Also one fourth of the annual products of the faro and of my one half interest in the mill in Maryville, Tenn.

2nd I give to my daughters Effie C. Hart and Cora B. Lowry, my one half interest in my mill in Maryville, Tenn. to share equally, changing them with the payment to Jessie A. Hart, my daughter, of five hundred dollars on attaining her majority, and one fourth the annual products for the support of my wife, during her lifetime as set forth in the first section of this will.

3rd I give to Ella B. and Nellie J. Hart, my daughters, the farm on which we live to share equally, changing them with the payment of Five Hundred Dollars to Jessie A. Hart, my daughter, on attaining her majority; And also one fourth of the annual products to the support of my wife during her lifetime, as provided in section first of this will.

4th. I give to Jessie A. Hart, my daughter, my two houses and lots in North Maryville, adjoining Irvin, M. Babb, Mrs. Bowles and others; Also the five hundred dollars mentioned in section second, and the five hundred dollars mentioned in section Third of this Will. Oct. 15th 1893. Thomas Hart.

Attest, J. A. Hendon.

G. B. Ross.

March 1896.

I now all men by these presents, that I, Francis Hackney, of Rainesville, Blount County Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, mind and feeble health, make and publish this my last will and testament revoking all wills by me at any time heretofore made.

1st. It is my will that all of my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of any money on hand at any death or that may come into the hands of my Executor after my death. I recognize an indebtedness of twenty five hundred dollars to my daughter-in-law, Rosella B. Hackney as evidenced by a note of hand bearing date of 7 March 5th 1872.

2nd. I will and bequeath to my daughter L. Isabella Beal, twenty five hundred dollars. But my Executor is directed to deduct from said sum any sum or sums that may heretofore have been paid or may hereafter be paid to her by me that may be evidenced either by Book account notes or receipts. It is further my will that my Executor shall, when it becomes inconvenient to her or the estate to longer live on any property, invest her share of my estate in some convenient home for her.

3rd. I will and bequeath to my daughter, Mary Adeline Conning and her heirs all the interest I now have, or may have at my death in a house & lot in the town of Maryville Blount County Tenn. The house and lot referred to is one bought under decree of Court and bought at sale from R. H. Hood Trustee and decided to me by him. And in addition a sum sufficient with what is now paid on the house and lot, to make twenty five hundred dollars and because I did not apprentice her in house hold goods as I did the other children, when going to house keeping, I will and bequeath to her all household property I may have on hands at my death.

4th. I will and bequeath to my grand daughter Henrietta C. Hackney the only heir at law of my son Henry C. Hackney, deceased, if alive at her majority or leaves any bodily heir the sum of twenty five hundred dollars. But in case of her death before her majority without bodily issue, then I will to her mother Rosella B. Hackney, if alive twelve hundred dollars and direct that the sum of this bequest be divided between my other heirs.
