State of Tennessee Blount County.

I, M. W. Jenkins of Blount County Tennessee being of sound mind and feeling that with me the toils and cares of life may soon end think it right and proper to make a final disposition of my real and personal property in pursuance of my desire and judgment in the reward of merit and devotion I therefore give and bequeath to my wife Maggie A Jenkins all my interest (being a seventh) in the farm known as the J. A. & M. E. Jenkins farm situated in the tenth civil district of Blount County Tennessee adjoining the lands of Right French Lefe Myers John Gibbs and perhaps others

I give and bequeath to my brother S P Jenkins one breach loading shot gun I give and bequeath to my brother Henry Jenkins one organ (which is now at my mothers) on which my mother holds a lien for twenty eight dollars) conditioned that he pays the twenty eight dollars to my mother if he refuse to comply with the condition my wife Maggie A Jenkins shall have the organ by complying with the conditions

I further give and bequeath to my wife Maggie A Jenkins the remainder of my personal property consisting of nine bee stands Buggy harness and carpenter tools.

And furthermore I leave the settlements of any and all debts incurred during my sickness to my executor W. T. Vanhook who may act without bond or oath and now in conclusion after the battle of life is over I consign my body to the earth from whence it came and my soul to God who gave it this the 1st day of Nov. 1907

A D N E Y .

In the name of God, Amen; I, Mary Adney of Blount County Tennessee, being in feeble health of body, but of sound mind and disposing memory, aware of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do make and publish this as my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all others by me at any time made.

FIRST. I direct that all my just debts, including funeral expenses be paid.

SECOND. I give and bequeath to my three (3) sons, George Adney, Frank Adney and Lafayette Rogers Adney my farm of One Hundred and Ninety (190) acres, acres, situated in the Twelfth (12th) Civil District of Blount County Tennessee, on Little River, near Rorex's Mill. Each of my sons above named is to have an equal share in my said farm, that is each son shall own a one third (1/3) of said farm.

THIRD. I give and bequeath to my three (3) sons, George Adney, Frank Adney and Lafayette Rogers Adney all of the personal property which I own at the time of my death. Each son to share and share alike.

FOURTH. It is my will and request that my husband, G. W. Adney shall have his living and support from my said farm as long as he lives.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this the 14th day of September 1904.

Mary Ann Adney.

Signed by the said Mary Ann Adney, as and for her last will and testament, in the presence of us, the undersigned, who at her request, and in her sight and presence, have subscribed our names hereto as attesting witnesses, the day and date above written.
