In Re M. J. Lackey.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF M. J. LACKEY.

I, M. J. Lackey, of the tenth (10th) Civil District in the County of Blount, and State of Tennessee, being of sound mind, memory and understanding, do hereby make, publish and declare this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all former Wills by me at any time heretofore made.

FIRST: I direct the payment of my debts, if any, and funeral expenses.

SECOND: Whereas I have made my home for many years with my daughter, Malinda Prater, and have been receiving rentals from my farm, from time to time, and desire now to state to state that at my death I do not desire that there be any charge made for my keeping or for any accrued rents that may have accumulated before my death. In other words, I do not desire that any claim be made by any one for any service rendered to me, or for any rents that may have been due me that have not been used by me.

THIRD: I give, devise and bequeath unto my daughter Malinda Prater, wife of O. B. Prater, my farm situated in the tenth (10th) Civil District of Blount County, in the State of Tennessee, and known as the Lackey Farm, and containing about four hundred forty nine (449) acres. For further description see deed Register at Maryville, Tennessee, in Deed Book 53, Page 507 Register's Office.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF I have to this my last Will and Testament set my hand and seal this 13th day of May in the year of Nineteen Hundred and Fifteen (1915)

M. J. Lackey
