

February 1901.

Mary T. Lord.

I, Mary T. Lord, a single woman, being of sound mind and disposing memory, realizing the uncertainty of the length of life, and the certainty of death, do make, ordain and publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any time heretofore made, that is to say:

First: I desire that all just indebtedness against me, including the expense of my last sickness and the funeral be paid as soon after my decease as practicable.

Second: I give, devise and bequeath to my two sisters, Helen M. Lord, and Caroline C. Follette, during their joint lives and in case of the death of either of them then to the survivor or all right and title in and to the lots, lands and tenements remaining from the lands conveyed to me by Jeremiah A. Grinnell, situated in the western part of the town of Maryville, Tennessee, in the 19th District of Blount County, Tennessee, together with all other lands or realty of any kind, whatsoever, with the right and power of jointly conveying any lands or lots parts or parcels of the same, which in their judgment may be deemed for the best interest of themselves or my estate, at any time in the future, and in the event of the death of one of them, then the survivor or to have the same right and benefit and power, and in so conveying to fully vest the title, right and claim therein in the purchaser, and my said sisters to use the proceeds in such manner as to them may appear wise and to the best interest of themselves and the other beneficiary under this will: and if at the death of my said sisters there are any of the lands remaining, then the title to be fully vested in my two nieces, Henrietta and Cecilia Lord, the daughters of my brother John C. Lord.

Third: After the payment of all my indebtedness and the indebtedness of my father for which I am endorser or otherwise bound to pay, I desire that two hundred dollars be paid to my sister Helen M. Lord, to repay to her the money advanced by her from the funds received from the estate of our sister, Fely Lord Tiffet, and if anything should be remaining from any money that may be coming to me, that it shall be given to my brother, Claude Lord, the principal to be kept at interest and he to have the use of the interest during his life time, and at his death, the principal and whatever of any accumulation there may be shall then be given to his daughter Anna Lord.

Fourth: I desire that my books, household effects, and other personal property about the house and belonging to me, shall be given to my two sisters, Helen M. Lord and Caroline C. Follette.

Fifth: There are two lots in West Maryville one of them lying between the lot of Commodore Porter and that of Orlando Winters, and the other adjoining the lot of J. E. Rowan on the western side of his lot, and facing or fronting on Lamar Avenue, which lots of right belong to my sister, Helen M. Lord, and the title to them may have been made to her, but of this I am not certain: but in the event said such title has not been made to her, then I desire to show the same here, and fully vest the title accordingly to her as if I had heretofore made deed in fee simple.

Sixth: I hereby nominate, constitute and app
