WILL OF JAMES WATERS:

I, James Waters, of Blount County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory and aware of the uncertainty of the length of life and the certainty of death, do make, ordain and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all other wills and codicils by me at any time heretofore made.

1. It is my will and I hereby direct that my funeral expenses and all just indebtedness owing by me at the time of my decease, be paid.

2. I give and devise to my son, Dr. James M. Waters during his life time, and at his death to his son James M. Waters, and to my daughter Mary E. Gamble, jointly and equally, the following tracts or parcels of land, all situated in the 14th District of Blount County, Tennessee, to wit: - (1) A tract known as the lower bottom containing 42 1/2 acres, more or less; (2) A tract south of the Knob road, containing 31 acres, more or less, the location and boundaries, all of which are more specifically and definitely set out and shown in the surveys and plats of W. M. Nuchols, Surveyor, made January 25th 1908, and are attached to and made part of this will, being Marked exhibits "A" and "B". (3) Two tracts situated on the waters of Little River, First, Known as the homestead tract, containing 101 1/2 acres, more or less, and Second, Tract of timber land, containing 50 1/2 acres, more or less, the location and boundaries of which are more specifically and definitely shown in the surveys of W. M. Nuchols, Surveyor, made January 25th 1908, which are attached to this will and made part of it, being marked exhibits "C" and "D".

3. I have heretofore given to each of my children one thousand dollars, making them equal that far.

4. I have also advanced and given to my daughter Jane whose first husband was Reece Davis, and after his death she married Cusiok, and she has since departed this life, and to my daughter Rachel Neubert, and to my son Cnoch Waters, each three thousand dollars, which I consider as making to them an equal amount, and therefore no more is given to them or their heirs except as herein after directed.

5. Some years ago I loaned to my grandson, James Waters, the son of Cnoch Waters, three hundred and twenty five dollars, for which his note was taken. By mutual agreement this note was renewed January 27th 1908 by Maude Waters, the widow of my said grand son, with Cnoch Waters and John Hitch as joint makers, being for $345.65, bearing interest from date, due and payable Annually. This note provides, and it is my will that when the principal is paid, the same shall become the property and belong to my great grand son, the son of my grand son James, the child's name being also James Waters, I retaining the right and use of the interest as it matures, and it is my will and I hereby direct that if my said great grand son above named should die without issue, that the money given to him hereunder shall be given and go to his uncles and aunts on
