

JULY TERM 1920.

WILL OF JOSEPH P. LAWRENCE.

I Joseph P. Lawrence, of Blount County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, but knowing the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking and making void all former wills by me at any time made,

1st. I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my death as practicable.

2nd I give, bequeath and devise all of my personal property of every kind and description and all my real estate to my beloved wife, Mary R. Lawrence, to hold or dispose of as she may see proper without bond.

3rd And I nominate and appoint my said wife, Mary R. Lawrence Executrix of this my last will and testament.

Given under my hand this the 22nd day of May 1917.

WILL OF LEWIS T. WALKER.

In the name of God, Amen. I, Lewis T. Walker, of the County of Blount and State of Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, in view of the uncertainty of life, and the certainty of death, do make, ordain and publish this my last will and testament, that is to say: -

First: I desire that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my decease as possible, from any money or effects which I may have at the time of my death.

Second: I give, bequeath and devise all the rest, residue and remainder of real estate, personal property, choses in action or other rights or property of which I may die seized and possessed, to my beloved wife, Oeta M. Walker, to be her own to manage and control as she may desire during her natural life, and at her death, to go to such child or children as she may have by me, if there be such, but in the event that I shall die without child or children by her, then and
