

within twelve months from the date of my death, with interest from the date of my death, then, and in that event, she, Susannah P., shall have the whole of said tract of land.

Fifth: I will and bequeath to my son, John M. Emert, the note that I hold against him, amounting at the time of their execution to about the sum of two hundred and twenty five dollars.

Sixth: To my son, Daniel D. Emert, I will nothing - my son George W. Emert having paid him two hundred and twenty five dollars, for his undivided interest in my estate - which sum I consider his share of my estate.

Seventh: To my three grand-children, Israel M. McInturff, Nancy A. McInturff, and Polina J. McInturff, I will and bequeath two hundred dollars; One hundred dollars of it to Israel M., and fifty dollars each, to Nancy A. and Polina A., to be paid as they may become of age, with interest from the date of my death.

Eighth: I direct that my Executor shall sell my tract of land on the "Myers branch" adjoining the lands of Jacob Froehner, containing $28\frac{1}{2}$ acres - and from the proceeds of said sale he shall pay the legacies in Sec 7, to my said grand-children, Israel M., Nancy A. and Polina J. McInturff; and if said tract fails to bring a sufficient amount to pay said legacies, then my son, George W. Emert shall pay the balance.

Ninth: I hereby appoint my son, George W. Emert, Executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I hereunto sign my name, this 30th day of November, 1894

J. M. Emert.

The foregoing instrument was signed and acknowledged in our presence on the date above written, by the testator and we sign at his request as witnesses.

Will of J. A. Mitchell

I, being of sound mind and memory, do this day make the following will and testament with reference to our house and lot situated in Louisville, which is in the 10th Civil District of Blount County, Tennessee, now owned and held conjointly between myself, James A. Mitchell and my wife, Sarah Ann Mitchell; for the event I should die first I will that my wife, Sarah Ann Mitchell shall hold all of our property during her mortal life; or dispose of it all if it should become necessary in order to her support. I further will that she shall own and dispose of ($250) two hundred and fifty dollars more than half the value of the property she bring entitled to the same more of the property than myself by paying into it the above amount from her individual means. This May the 17th, 1892.
