

MARCH TERM 1915.

R. G. DeArmond.

I, R. G. DeArmond, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking any will that may have heretofore been made.

I hereby will, give and devise, to my beloved wife, Florence DeArmond, all of my property of every kind and description, real and personal, monies, accounts, choses in action, real estate, horses, farm implements, and all personal property that I may own at the time of my death, as well as real estate, to be hers during her natural life, she to have the right to dispose of any of the personal property she may desire, and to have the use and benefit of any real estate I may die seized and possessed of.

At the death of my said wife, I desire and will that all of said property above mentioned, shall go to and be the property of the daughter of my said wife, to wit; Clemens Pauline Woodward, to be her property absolutely.

Signed and sealed, on this the 21st day of October, 1911.

R. <sup>E</sup> DeArmond,

We have hereunto signed our names as witnesses to the above will, at the request of R. G. DeArmond, and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, he acknowledging that it is his last will and testament.
