

November, 1901.

First. I give and bequeath to my wife, Nancy E. White, all of my personal property, to be disposed of by her as she may see fit & proper.

Second. I give and devise to my said wife, my tract of land on which I live, situated in the 8th civil district of Blount County and containing One Hundred acres, more or less, to be held by her during her natural life, and at her death I give and devise the same to my sons James H. White and John A. White, on their paying to my two daughters, Rebecca Wells, wife of W. M. Wells, and Minnie M. White, the sum of three hundred dollars each, and said sum is to be a lien upon the land herein devised until fully paid, and to become due on the death of my wife, Nancy E. White.

Third. My funeral expenses and any debts which I may owe at the time of my death to be paid by my said wife out of the personal property herein bequeathed to her.

I have heretofore given to my other children & heirs all of their part of my estate which I intended for them, therefore nothing is given them under this will.

Fourth. I hereby nominate and appoint James H. White, Executor of this my last will & testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name, this the 18th day of February, 1897.
