MAY TERM 1911.

P. J. BRIGHT.

Know all men by these presents that I, P. J. Bright being of sound mind and disposing Memory, and Knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of Death, do make and publish this my last will and testament revoking all wills by me, at any time heretofore made.

1st It is my will that after my death that my executor pay any funeral expense and Doctor bills and all other Just debts out the money on hands, or the first money coming into his hand.

2nd I will, and direct, that my executor Sell all my personal property and collect any notes or accounts that I may possess at the time of my death and after paying any legacies hereafter mentioned out of the proceeds of my estate; including the farm I own in the 4th Dist. of Blount County Tennessee and deeded to or Bowerman Me by Nannie Key, which said farm I direct my executor to sell, either publically or privately as his Judgment may believe to be the best interest of my estate, to be equally divided between my grand children James Henry Bright, Stephen Lorenzo Bright and Carrie Lou Bright share and share alike, But it is expressly directed that my said grand children be carefully educated out of the said money received out of my estate and after they reach their majority what remains to be paid to them

3 As my sister hannah Bright has been very attentive in assisting myself and wife, now deceased, I will and direct that she be provided out of my personal estate with with a home and support during her life, Said home, if preferable, on the farm where I reside and now deeded to my Grand children herein mentioned, or such other place as my Executor may provide.

4th For the purposes of carrying out this will I, constitute and appoint my friend Stokley Polan as my executor

In witness whereof I have this 17th day of May 1911 set my hand and seal
