

JANUARY, 1910.

In the name of God. Amen. I, Joseph E. Scott, of Blount County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and memory, and realizing the uncertainty of the length of life and the certainty of death, do make, ordain and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking any will which I have heretofore made, that is to say:-

1. It is my will that all my just debts, including the expenses of my last sickness and death and funeral, be paid as soon after my decease as convenient, from any funds or assets which I may have at that time.
2. I give and bequeath to my daughters children, that is to say, the children of Mary Frye, deceased, ten dollars, to be equally divided between them; to the children of my daughter Rhoda L. Scott, deceased, ten dollars to be equally divided between them; to the children of my daughter Sydney Ann Frye, deceased, ten dollars, to be equally divided between them; to the children of my daughter, Sarah Sparks, deceased, ten dollars to be equally divided between them.
3. I give and bequeath to my son, William E. Scott, five dollars, together with one hundred and nine ($109) dollars from the Hodge lands which have heretofore been deeded to him.
4. I give, bequeath and devise to my son, Sherman Scott, and to my daughter Nancy Cooper during her natural life, with remainder to her children, all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal, mixed or of whatever kind or nature, Sherman to have one half in value, and Nancy Cooper to have the other half during her natural life, with the remainder to go to her children. It is my will that the lands be divided equally between them in value, each to have the end or part of the home place from the ends on which they now live or occupy the same, and each to have a right of way or road over the lands of the other. My Executor is hereby authorized and empowered to make sale, either publicly or privately as he may deem for the best, of the seven acre tract, provided the parties cannot agree as to a partition of the same, and the proceeds be divided equally between Sherman Scott and Nancy Cooper.
5. I hereby constitute and appoint my son, Sherman Scott, as Executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I hereunto affix my signature, on this the 23d day of March, 1909.
