MARCH TERM 1917.

IN RE JOHN C. WALLACE.

I, John C. Wallace, of Hamilton County, Tennessee, but temporarily residing in Blount County, Tennessee, aware of the uncertainty of this life, and being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void all other wills and codicils thereto by me at any time heretofore made.

FIRST: I direct that all my just debts, if any, including my funeral and burial expenses be paid.

SECOND: It is my desire and I hereby will, give and devise to Charles F. Wallace, Walter Wallace, Jessie Wallace, Louise Wallace and Olive Wallace, (the first three named being the children of my deceased brother, Charles S. Wallace, and the last two named being the children of my brother Oliver C. Wallace) in equal shares, my house and lot known as the Charles E. Wallace Homestead, situated in the 3rd Ward of Maryville, Tennessee, containing 1/4 of an acre, more or less, being the property formerly conveyed to my father Charles E. Wallace by J.H. Tedford.

THIRD: It is my desire and I hereby will, give and devise unto my nephew, John Wallace, son of my only living brother Oliver C. Wallace my lot and business building, situated on Main Street in Maryville, Tennessee, being one-fourth of Lot #59 in said town, and more fully described in deed from R. I. Wilson to my father, Charles E. Wallace, which is of record in the Register's office for Blount County, Tennessee, in Book "G.G." page 30.

It is my desire and I also devise, give and bequeath unto my said nephew John Wallace, all my insurance in the Metropolitan Insurance Company, And I hereby direct that all this insurance, whatever amount there may be, shall be deposited by my Executor in the First National Bank--Chattanooga, Tennessee, to the credit of, or for the use and benefit of said John Wallace; said amount to draw interest from date of deposit, payable annually.

It is my earnest desire that my said nephew, John Wallace, shall receive a good and reasonable education, and I hereby direct that his father, Oliver C. Wallace, shall require said John Wallace to go to school and receive a proper education. And that my insurance money and the interest thereon be properly safeguarded and used by my said brother, or in case of his death, by the legally appointed guardian or trustee for this purpose.

It is my wish and I hereby authorize and direct my executor, Oliver C. Wallace, to collect all rents, interest and other income from said property given my nephew John Wallace, until said John Wallace becomes twenty
