

SEPTEMBER TERM 1911.

THOMAS LILLARD.

I, THOMAS LILLARD, of Blount County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and memory, and realizing the uncertainty of the length of days and the certainty of death which comes to all men, do hereby make, ordain and publish this, my last will and testament, that as to say:

1. It is my desire that all my just debts be paid and satisfied as soon after my decease as possible, including the expenses of my last sickness, death and burial.
2. It is my desire, if possible, that no real estate be sold for the purpose of the payment of my debts, but if necessary that my son Jasper Lillard with the concurrence of my daughter Catherine Lillard, being my only children now living, to borrow as much money as may be necessary for the payment of my indebtedness, and to this end that they be fully empowered to make and execute mortgages or trust deeds on the lot and brick store house on Main Street in Maryville, conveying the title in trust as fully and completely as I myself while living, to secure such amount or amounts as may be borrowed for this purpose, on such time or times as they think best.
3. It is my will that my wife have the use and occupation and benefit of all my real estate as well as personal property during her natural life; and at her death I give and devise my brick store house and lot on Main Street, in Maryville, Tennessee, subject to any mortgage or trust there may be existing or outstanding as herein provided for, to my two children, Jasper Lillard and Catherine Lillard, one third each, and the remaining one third jointly to my two grand-children, Harold Kennedy and Frances Kennedy; and all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal, mixed or of whatever nature, I give, bequeath and devise to my two children, Jasper and Catherine, equally, to have and to hold as an estate in fee simple.
4. I hereby constitute and appoint my son, Jasper Lillard, as executor of this my last will and testament, and the estate being small, I desire that he be relieved from giving bond or making settlement but that he shall settle and dispose of all just indebtedness.

In witness whereof, I hereunto affix my signature at my residence, on this the 18th day of August, 1911.
