I, Mary Jane Trotter, of Maryville, Blount County, Tennessee, make and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills by me heretofore made.

First: I will and bequeath to my sister Narcissa E. Kidd all the real estate of which I may die seized, consisting now of a house and lot situate on Main Street in Maryville, Tenn. where I now reside, and an undivided one-half interest in a house and lot in the village of Louisville, Blount County Tenn.

Second: All the money I may have on hand at my death, and notes or other evidences of debt I desire to be equally divided between the children of my deceased brother, Samuel K. Finley, viz- Mary T. Finley, Roxie P. Gordon, James P. Finley, Estelle K. Finley and John C. Finley- share and share alike.

In the event of the death of any of them without issue, the survivors to have his or her part, and in the event of death of any one, leaving child or children, then the child or children to inherit the parents interest.

Third: I give to my sister all my household and kitchen furniture, and in consideration of this and the bequest set forth in the first section, she, my said sister Narcissa E. Kidd, shall pay all the expense of my last sickness and my funeral expenses.

Fourth: I hereby appoint, my cousin, John L. Keny, Executor of this my last will and testament.

Witness my hand this 25th day of November 1905.

Attest
J. L. Keny.
