

May, 1899.

I

I direct that all my just debts, including my funeral expenses, be paid out of any money I may have on hand at the time of my death.

II

I give and bequeath to Mrs. M. B. Howe as a separate estate free from the use and control of her husband, all of my household and kitchen furniture, including my piano.

III

I give and bequeath to the said Mrs. M. B. Howe, in trust one thousand dollars in cash and all the real estate I did seized and possessed of in Blount and Knox Counties State of Tenn. with full power to sell, dispose of, transfer and assign said real estate and make deed for the same, and receive the proceeds arising from the sale of said real estate and use the same together, with the aforesaid one thousand dollars, equally to or towards the education and support of her five children, viz: Alice, Hazel, Luciel, Arne, and Wilfred Howe. The said trustee is empowered to sell said real estate on such terms and in such manner as she thinks best and her said children, before named, are to share and share alike of all the proceeds coming into her hands as said trustee, including the one thousand dollars, before mentioned, and said funds are to be returned by said trustee and paid out by her to her said children at such times and in such manner as she thinks best and proper. And having implicit confidence in her honesty she is excused from giving bond and settling with the County Court Clerk as required by law.

IIII

I hereby appoint the said Mrs. M. B. Howe, executrix of this my last will and testament, and she is excused from giving bond.

IIII

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal on this the 28th day of March, A.D. 1899.
