March 1896.

Hackney

I show all men by these presents, that I, Isaac Hackney, of Reidsville, Blount County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, mind and feeble health, make and publish this my last will and testament desiring all bills by me at any time heretofore made.

1st. It is my will that all of my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of any money on hand at my death or that may come into the hands of my Executor after my death. I recognize an indebtedness of twenty five hundred dollars to my daughter-in-law, Pricilla B. Hackney as evidenced by a note of hand bearing date of 7th month 5th 1892.

2nd. I will and bequeath to my daughter, L. Isabelle Beale, twenty five hundred dollars. But my Executor is directed to deduct from said sum any sum or sums that may heretofore have been paid or may hereafter be paid to her by one that may be evidenced either by book account notes or receipts. It is further my will that my Executor shall, when it becomes convenient to her or the estate to longer live on my property, invest her share of my estate in more convenient home for her.

3rd. I will and bequeath to my daughter, Mary Adeline Conning and her heirs all the interest I now have, or may have at my death in a house lot in the town of Maryville Blount County Tenn. The house and lot referred to is one bought under decree of Court and bought at sale from R. H. Wood. Trustee and deeded to me by him. And in addition a sum sufficient with what was paid in the house and lot, to make twenty five hundred dollars and because I did not appraise her in house hold goods as I did the other children, when going to house-keeping, I will and bequeath to her all household property I may have on hand at my death.

4th. I will and bequeath to my grand daughter Henrietta C. Hackney the only heir at law of my son Henry C. Hackney, deceased, if alive at her majority or leaves any bodily heir the sum of twenty five hundred dollars. But in case of her death before her majority without bodily issue, then I will to her mother Pricilla B. Hackney, if alive twelve hundred dollars and direct that the residue of this bequest be divided between my other heirs.
