If my said husband desires to qualify as guardian, it is my wish that he do so, and after so qualifying and giving bond as said guardian for the amount of money now in his hands as trustee, and for any other personal property belonging to me that may come into his hands, he shall be released as such trustee.

I desire that my said children be allowed the use of the interest on said funds until they become of age, when said funds, with any accrued interest thereon shall be equally divided between them.

I desire that my said husband as trustee and guardian may use or otherwise invest said fund in whatever manner he deems best to do, provided that he properly accounts for it and turns it over to said Lillian Genelle and Anna Mae when they become of age.
