

OCTOBER TERM 1918

W. C. WRINKLE

I, W. C. Wrinkle, of Blount County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, knowing the uncertainty of this life and the certainty of death, do make, publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void any and all other wills by me at any time heretofore made.

First,- I will that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid by my Executor<sup>s</sup> hereinafter named, as soon after my death as practicable.

Second,- I will that after the payments of my just debts, etc. as above mentioned, that all the remainder of my personal and real property be used for the benefit and support of my wife, Mary Ann Wrinkle during her life time, she to have full control of said property, and after her death the remainder of my property to be disposed of as hereinafter provided.

Third,- I will and bequeath to my brother Hugh Wrinkle, Four Thousand ($4,000.00) Dollars; to the three children of my niece, Minnie Lee Walker, deceased, jointly, One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars; to my niece Ella W. Bailey and her husband, William Bailey, Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars; to my nephew and name-sake, Chas. Cowan Clark, Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars; to Robert Clark, Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars; to the Cumberland Presbyterian Theological Seminary, ($500.00) Five Hundred Dollars. Should there not be sufficient funds to pay all the above bequests in full then they shall be paid pro rata in accordance with the amounts of the different bequests.

Fourth,- The balance of my estate, after the payment in full of the ~~the~~ specific bequests mentioned in paragraph "Third" shall be divided into three equal parts, one third of which shall go to the Cumberland Presbyterian Theological Seminary; one third to be equally divided between my nephew Perry Wrinkle and my niece Ella W. Bailey; one third to the five children of my dead brother Zebulon Wrinkle; the children of such of ~~me~~ his children as are dead, taking their parents share.

Fifth,- Should any of the beneficiaries under this Will not be satisfied with their proportion or part under this Will or for any reason shall cause any trouble or institute proceedings regarding my estate after my death, then such beneficiary or beneficiaries shall lose the amount or amounts left to them by this Will.

OCTOBER TERM 1918

Sixth,- I do hereby nominate my brother-in-law Thomas Clark as Executor of this my last Will and Testament, and such is my faith and confidence in him, that I hereby release him from making any bond, taking oath as is ordinarily required by law, but ask that he make a report of such amounts as may come into his hands and that he make a final settlement with the County Court showing the distribution of my estate.

Seventh,- The Executor is directed to dispose of any and all of my property, both real, personal or mixed at private or public sale, which ever in his judgment shall be to the best interest of the estate.

This July 31st 1918.

W. C. Wrinkle, Seal

Signed, sealed and delivered in our presence by the testator as and for his last will and testament, and we at his request, in his presence and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as attesting witnesses, the day and date above written.

Mrs. Martha Everett,
Clay Cunningham.

NOVEMBER TERM 1918

IN RUTHAN SINCLAIR.

State of Tenn. Blount County.
R.D. #1

I Ruthan Sinclair of Rockford Blount County, Tenn. do make and Publish this as my last will and testament hereby revoking all others by me at any time made.

1st. I desire that shortly after my death my Executor shall proceed to <sup>at my death</sup> sell all the property ~~property~~ that I may own <sup>to the best and highest bidder</sup> and out of the proceeds pay all the debts that I may owe including Dr bills and burial expenses

2nd For the love and affection that I have for my daughters Cordie Dockery and Anna Curbison, I desire that the remainder be <sup>divided</sup> equally between them

3rd I appoint Gates Marshall executor to my will.

This Feb. 24, 1915.

S. R. Kinnamon

her
Ruthan X Sinclair
mark