LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

S.A. (TONY) MOOK).

I, S.A. (Tony) Meek being of Sound mind and disposing memory do hereby make publish and declare this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking any and all wills and Codicils made by me heretofore.

First, I give and bequeath to my Son John William Meek and my daughters Kate Meek and Mrs. Lester Cargile my house and lot where I now reside being a part of the same property which I purchased from J.N. Badgett et al which deed is of record in Blount County, Tenn. Book of Deeds Volume 51, page 502. This lot is located in the City of Maryville, Tennessee in the Second ward and in the Ninth District of Blount County, Tennessee. The other part of this property which I purchased from J.N. Badgett et al was given to John Thomas Meek as his share of my estate and which he accepted as such. This property is to go in equal parts to my children John William Meek, Kate Meek and Mrs. Lester Cargile. On the death of either of these three children the share owned by that child goes to the other children in equal amounts.

Second, I hereby will and bequeath to my Son John William Meek all of my tools of any description. The balance on my personal property I will and bequeath to my son John William Meek, and my daughters Kate Meek and Mrs. Lester Cargile in equal amounts the property to be so divided that each will receive one third of the value of the total value.

Third, I direct that all my just and honest debts be paid before any property is disposed of by my heirs John William Meek, and my daughters Kate Meek, and Mrs. Lester Cargile.

Fourth, I hereby nominate and appoint my Son John William Meek as executor of this my last will and Testament.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this April 11th. 1928.

S.A. (Tony) Meek.

The above instrument consisting of two legal Cap pages and fifty three lines was on the day of the date thereof declared and acknowledged to us by S.A. (Tony) Meek the testator therein mentioned to be his last will and Testament, and we were present and saw the said S.A. (Tony) Meek sign and seal the same, and we at his request and in his actual presence, and in the presence of each other, do sign our names as attesting witnesses to said will and we verily believe the said S.A. (Tony) Meek to be of sound mind and Memory.

JAMES E. KING,
LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

I, James E. KING, of Blount County, Tennessee, being of sound and disposing mind and memory do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void any and all other wills or codicils thereto by me at any time heretofore made.

1st. - I direct that all of my just debts, if any, including my funeral and burial expenses be paid as soon as convenient by my executors.

2nd. - It is my desire and I hereby give and devise to my wife Emma King for and during her natural life the bungalow known as No. 1, which adjoins my home, and situated on Broadway, in Maryville, Tenn. Also a dwelling-house, I purchased from Mr. Disney, situated on Emanuel Street in Vestal near Knoxville, Tenn.

I also give and bequeath to my wife Emma King sufficient household and kitchen effects for her use and comfort during her natural life to be her own.

3rd. - It is my desire and I hereby give, bequeath and devise all the rest and residue of my property, real and personal, unto my children, - Laura F. Whaley, Lela S. Ingle, Samuel H. King, Mary G. Delonier, Audley C. King, and Melissa E. King, in equal shares or proportions.

And upon the death of my said wife Emma King, I bequeath and devise said property given to her for her use during her life, to my children above named in equal shares; except my household and kitchen effects, which I intend for my wife, Emma King to have absolutely and outright, except a parlor upholstered suite, which I hereby give to my daughter Melissa E. King.

4th. I hereby name and appoint as my joint executors, Sam H. King and R. J. Ingle, who shall receive as their compensation for their services in winding up my estate, the sum of $50.00 a piece.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand on this June 30, 1925.

MAY TERM 1929.

IN RE: SAMUEL WARREN
LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

Be it known, That I, Samuel Warren, of Bleunt County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and memory, and at this time being in the enjoyment of a reasonable degree of good health for one of my age, but realizing that the length of life is uncertain and death is sure, do make, ordain, publish and declare the following to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking and declaring to be void any will that I may have heretofore made, to-wit:

FIRST: It is my will that all just indebtedness against my estate at the time of my decease, including the expense of my last sickness and funeral, be paid as soon after my decease as convenient.

SECOND: I give, bequeath, and devise to my six sons, William Warren, Dennis Warren, Sherman Warren, Leander Warren, Anderson Warren, and Carl Warren, all the real estate of which I may be seized and possessed, to hold in equal shares or interests, on condition that they pay to my two daughters each three hundred dollars, and to the children of my deceased, daughter, Rosa McBath, three hundred dollars, that is, that my said sons each pay one hundred and fifty dollars, making the sum of nine hundred dollars.

THIRD: It is my desire and I hereby direct, that in the event of either of my sons desiring to sell or dispose of his interest in the lands, he shall first make the same known to his brothers, and make the offer to them, and if they or either of them desire to accept the offer, that conveyance may be made accordingly, and that this shall be done and the offer refused by the brothers before he can make conveyance to any person outside of the family, and that the offer or bid to any person outside of the family must be a better or greater amount than any offer by the brothers.

FOURTH: I give and bequeath to my two daughters, Octavia Heard, and Eva Barlow, three hundred dollars, and to the children of my deceased daughter, Rosa McBath, jointly, the sum of three hundred dollars, to be held by them equally, that is, to be paid to their guardian as hereinafter designated and appointed, and that this fund shall be kept at interest, well and safely secured, from date, and so kept until said children shall arrive at maturity. The devisees to the daughter as above, being the amounts provided in the second section above to be paid by the same.

FIFTH: I constitute and appoint my son William Warren, as Guardian of said minor children, and it is my desire and I hereby ask that he serve without compensation, guarding the rights and interests of these children to the best of his ability.

MAY TERM 1929.

SIXTH: I give and hereby direct that from my death ten dollars per year be paid to the support of the pastor or stated supply of the Mary Lou Essler Presbyterian Church at Louisville, to be paid at the end of the pastoral year provided he serves the full time of the year, but if service is shorter period, then at the same rate for the time served, to continue until one hundred dollars has been exhausted for that purpose.

SEVENTH: I desire that all monies, incomes, and effects of any kind coming to the estate, be collected and taken possession of by my executor herein-after named, and the property and effects be sold to the highest bidder, and the effects so remaining and collected be divided equally between all my children, the children of my deceased daughter taking the interest or share jointly that their mother would have taken if living; and I desire and direct that my executor place the same in some good and safe, well secured deposit or loan, bearing interest, and that he pay the same to the legatees as herein provided at the end of twenty years from the date of my death.

EIGHTH: Part of my sons have had advancements in the way of borrowed money, for which they have executed notes which I hold against them. It is my will and I hereby direct that they must pay these notes before they can take any distribution from my estate, the same being counted as advancements and first claims against their interest or share.

NINTH: It is my will that my sons shall have two years within which to make payments of the amount on the real estate to their sisters and children of the deceased sister, the same to bear interest from date, and be and remain a lien on the real estate until fully paid.

TENTH: I hereby constitute and appoint my son, Anderson Warren, as Executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I hereunto affix my signature, on this 21st day of March, 1925.

His

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

I, W. T. Hatcher, of Blount County, Tennessee, do make and publish this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void any and all wills and codicils thereto here tofore by me at any time made.

FIRST: I direct that all my just debts, if any, including my funeral expenses be paid.

SECOND: It is my wish and I hereby will, devise, and bequeath unto my wife, M. J. Hatcher, all my property both real and personal during her natural life time, but at her death it is my will and I hereby will, devise and bequeath unto my son, J. A. Hatcher, all of my property both real and personal. The real estate which I now own is located in the 6th Civil District of Blount County, Tennessee, and was deeded to me by E. L. Hatcher and wife on the 25th day of August 1908, and is recorded in Vol. 66, Page 582, in the Register's office for Blount County, Tennessee. This farm, as above stated, at the death of my wife is to go to my son J. A. Hatcher, and also all the personal property of whatever kind and description and wherever found is to go to my son, J. A. Hatcher.

THIRD: It is my desire and I hereby will, devise and bequeath that my son J. A. Hatcher pay to my son, A. K. Hatcher the sum of One Thousand ($1000.00) Dollars, in consideration of his getting the farm above described; $500.00 of which is to be paid at my death or at the death of my wife, M. J. Hatcher should she outlive me, and $250.00 to be paid in one year thereafter and $250.00 to be paid in two years thereafter, unless my son J. A. Hatcher desires to pay it sooner, if so, he may do so.

FOURTH: I hereby nominate and appoint my son J. A. Hatcher sole executor of this my last will and testament, and excuse him from making any bond to the court.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 10th day of April, 1920.

W. T. HATCHER.

Signed and published by the said W. T. Hatcher as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us the undersigned, who, at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other have hereunto signed our names as attesting witnesses on the day and date above mentioned.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

I, A. B. Davis being of sound mind and disposing memory do hereby make and declare this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made.

I direct that any debts which I may owe, including funeral expenses be paid out of the first money coming into the hands of my executor.

I am interested in the welfare, comfort and happiness of my wife and children and give them all the property which I have, and in order that my wife, Ethel Davis, may be free to use, manage and control it for the benefit of herself and our children I vest title in her to all my property of every kind and character wherever located.

I authorize her to sell any property which in her judgment may seem best, and to execute any and all deeds necessary for passing title to said property. The proceeds derived from said sale, and any money on hands at my death not used in paying debts or funeral expenses I desire that she invest or place at interest on real estate mortgages as in her judgment may seem best and to keep said said money loaned or invested. I hope that the income from the estate may be sufficient for the support of my wife and children, but I do not limit them to the use of the income, but give my wife full power to incroach upon the corpus of the estate if she thinks the needs of herself and our children demand it.

In managing the estate I suggest that she confer with Ben Clark, our brother-in-law, and very close friend, whose judgment and assistance will be helpful to her.

I have complete confidence in the honesty and integrity of my wife and want her to have absolute freedom in the management of the property and request that she be excused from executing bond. At the death of my wife, Ethel Davis, I desire that the property remaining in her hands, if any, unused, be divided equally among our children.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto signed by name on this the 11 day of April, 1929.

A. B. DAVIS.

Signed by the said A. B. Davis, as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, the undersigned, who, at his request, and in his sight and presence have subscribed our names thereto as attesting witnesses, the day and year above written.

Emily McDermid Minton.

Thomas G. Stanley.

MARTHA E. KERR,
LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

I, Martha E. Kerr, of Bleunt County, Tennessee, being of sound mind, and disposing memory, and aware of the uncertainty of this life, do hereby make declare and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void any and all wills or codicils thereto by me at any time heretofore made.

1st.- It is my will and I hereby direct my Executrix to pay all of my just debts, if any, including my funeral and burial expenses.

2nd.- It is my will, and I hereby give and devise unto my sister, Phebe Elizabeth Kerr, the undivided interest or share I own in our place, containing 24  $\frac{3}{4}$  acres, more or less, and for full and complete description of said land reference is here made to the deed of my mother, Sarah M. Kerr to myself and my sister, Phebe E. Kerr, dated September 1, 1927, and recorded in the Register's Office, for Bleunt County, Tennessee, in Deed Book 101, page 300. All of my interest, share, and rights in said lands to belong to my said sister, Phebe Elizabeth Kerr, absolutely in fee simple, subject alone to the rights of my

SEPTEMBER TERM 1929

MITCHELL C. ROBIN, Clerk.

The following, among other proceedings, were by and before said Court had, and entered of record, to-wit:

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF

The dedimus potestatem or commission issued you by this Court to Fred W. Files, a Commissioner in and for the County of Norfolk, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, authorizing him to take and certify to this Court in due form of law the testimony of R. T. Whetley, one of the witnesses to an instrument in writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Morton Butler, deceased, touching the execution of said will having been returned into Court under seal with the deposition of said witness certified by said Commissioner, and the Court having examined said deposition which is now on file in this Court finds therefrom that said Will was duly executed and attested according to law and that said Testator was of sound mind and memory and otherwise competent to make his will at the time of signing the same.

Also came, Harold A. Davis, a witness in open Court on oath testified that he was acquainted with Henry T. Davis, one of the other subscribing witnesses to said instrument and that he was familiar with the handwriting of said Henry T. Davis, and that the said Henry T. Davis is now deceased and that the signature to said instrument now before the Court is the genuine signature of said Henry T. Davis, it is ordered that said will be received and recorded as the last Will and Testament of said Morton Butler, deceased.

And it appearing to the Court that the appearance and consent of all the heirs at law of said decedent have been filed herein; also came Julia P. Butler, and Gerald M. Butler of the County of Cook and presented to the Court their petition duly verified showing that said Testator in his will nominated the said Julia P. Butler, and Gerald M. Butler as Executors thereon and praying that letters Testamentary may be issued to them, it is ordered that letters Testamentary be issued to Julia P. Butler and Gerald M. Butler upon their presenting to this Court their bond in the penal sum of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars, whereupon the said Julia P. Butler and Gerald M. Butler presented to this Court their individual bond in the penal sum of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars duly executed without surety, surety being waived by said will, it is ordered that said bond be approved and recorded and that letters Testamentary be issued accordingly under the seal of this Court and that the same be recorded.

SEPTEMBER TERM 1929.

It is further ordered that Arthur Kees, R. L. Burch, Jr. and F. L. Wynns, be appointed to appraise the personal estate of said decedent subject to appraisement and that a warrant be issued to them therefor.
