

188); as laid down in the plan of the town of Cleveland and bounded on the North by Berry Street, and on the east by John Goodner, on the South by John Goodner, and on the west by Oak Street; This house and lot I value at One Thousand dollars ($1000⁰⁰)

Fifth; I will devise and bequeath to my beloved daughter, Mary Elizabeth Bean, whom we call Bettie, fifteen hundred dollars ($1500⁰⁰) in cash. The reason why I will her more than I do the other girls is because she has not had the opportunities of school that they have had.

Sixth I will that the remainder of my property of whatever kind it may consist, be divided equally among my three daughters, one third to Mamie Rachel Williams, one third to Adeline Isabelle Humphrey, and one third to Mary Elizabeth Bean, whom we call Bettie, and if it is agreeable with all of them they may divide a part or all of the household goods among themselves without sale.

Seventh, I nominate and appoint my son in law, W.D. Humphrey, Jr. my executor of this my last will and testament, and desire that he be allowed a reasonable compensation for his services, this compensation not to be less than one hundred dollars ($100⁰⁰)

In testimony whereof I have this day affixed my signature

This April 24, 1897 W.D. Bean

Signed by the said W.D. Bean as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us, the undersigned, who at his request and in his sight and presence, have subscribed our names hereto as attesting

J. P. Wells. Will

I, J. P. Wells of Cleveland Bradley County, Tennessee do make and publish this my last will & testament hereby revoking all former wills by me ~~at any~~ time made.

First, I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Lydia M Wells forever, my house and lot now occupied by me as a residence on College Avenue and Porter Street in Second ward in the town of Cleveland Tennessee together with all the household goods and furniture contained therein also all my tools, and I do further give and bequeath to my wife Lydia M Wells the two hundred and fifty dollar ($250.⁰⁰) stock in the Chattanooga National Building & Loan Association, also the two hundred dollar ($200.⁰⁰) note with mortgage on E. S. Dedmon's property, together with fifty dollars ($50.⁰⁰) cash. These last three articles have been transferred to my wife and are only mentioned here to prevent any misunderstanding. And should she my wife, not realize as much as five hundred dollars ($500.⁰⁰) out of the Building and Loan stock, the the Dedmon note and the fifty dollars cash, then she is to have enough of the first mortgage coming to the Executive's hand to finish the amount of five hundred dollars ($500.⁰⁰) before any division is made.

And I also give and bequeath to my wife Lydia M Wells one half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of all the remainder of my personal property, including one half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the amount to be paid by J. C. McKinzy on one house and lot on Walker St, Pine St, and an alley in second Cleveland Tennessee, which has hitherto been bargained to him.

And my Executive shall be empowered to make said McKinzy a deed in fee simple to said lot when ^{fully} paid for. Second, The ~~remaining~~ ^{remaining} part of my property, both real and personal property, the really consisting of two house lots, in Second ward on Walker St and also lots no 32, 34, 35 & 36 as laid down on the map of Peters place addition to Cleveland on Eleventh, Arthur & Oscar Streets.

I give, devise and bequeath to the following persons in the following proportions, to Sarah M Tuttle my niece wife of Peter Tuttle two eleventh (2/11); to Harriett H Tuttle my niece by marriage widow of Oliver Tuttle one eleventh (1/11); and to each of the eight children or their heirs, of my sister Anna Eliza Tuttle one eleventh (1/11), all of New York state.

Third I hereby nominate and appoint my wife Lydia M Wells my sole Executive of this my last will and testament and she is released from making bond as Executive of my estate, the same being waived by me and she is also empowered to make title to lot bargained to J. C. McKinzy as hitherto mentioned.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand this 10th day of March 1894

Joseph P Wells
Signed by the said J. P. Wells as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, the undersigned, who at his request and in his ~~sight~~ ^{sight} and presence have subscribed our names hereto as attesting witnesses, the day and date above written.

It appearing to the Court in its session that Elizabeth Montgomery, late a citizen of Bradley County Tennessee, departed this life at his late residence in said county about the 23 day of December 1896, and it further appearing that she had made her last will and testament and W. R. Montgomery presented to the Court a paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Elizabeth Montgomery deceased and petitioned the Court that said paper might be admitted to probate as the last will and testament of the said Elizabeth Montgomery deceased and therefore J. H. Montgomery, W. S. Cogood attesting witnesses to said script, who after being duly sworn depose and say that they were present when the said Elizabeth Montgomery made, published and declared said paper purporting to be her last will and testament and that she was of sound mind and memory and they further say that she signed said script in their presence and that they at her request and in her presence and in the presence of each other signed their names to said paper purporting as attesting witnesses

Therefore the Court orders, adjudges and decrees that said paper purporting to be, the last will and testament of Elizabeth Montgomery deceased, and the Court further orders that said will be a part of record upon the will book of this Court together with this probate

Dr. W. J. Fitzsimmons.

I, W. J. Fitzsimmons, of Cleveland

Tennessee, being sound and healthy in both body and mind and desiring while in that condition to give positive directions about the ownership of my estate after my demise, do hereby make public and declare this my last will and testament hereby revoking and making absolutely void any and all wills made by me prior to this date.

1st. I desire that after my decease, my body be allowed descent interment with Christian rites, and that all funeral expenses be promptly paid.

2d. I desire and direct that all my just debts be paid out of my estate as soon as practicable, by my executor hereinafter named.

3d. I own a farm in the 3rd civil district of Bradley County, Tennessee, being a part of the farm known generally as the Kerr farm. I own a house and lot in Cleveland, Tennessee, where I now reside with my wife. I own some stock in the Chattanooga National Bank and Loan Association. I also own some stock in Fisher & Fry's Writing Machine Association. I also have some money on hands, and money, notes, and accounts due me.

Now, all the above property, real and personal, money, stock, and accounts, stock &c or all of the same or of either of which I may die seized and possessed, I hereby give, bequeath, and devise to my beloved wife Louisa C.

Fitzsimmons absolutely and in fee simple.

I hereby give, bequeath, and devise to my said beloved wife any and all other property, real, personal and mixed of which I may die seized and possessed. My intention being to vest my said wife in absolute fee simple of my entire estate at the time of my decease, having no one to question her estate in full property and efforts that I may see at my decease subject to no conditions except that a sufficiency of the same be used for the payment of my just debts as above specified.

5th. I do hereby nominate and appoint my said beloved wife executrix of this my last will and testament, and reposing the utmost confidence in her honesty and integrity, I hereby direct that she shall not be required to give any bond and security as such executrix. In testimony whereof I hereto subscribe my name and affix my seal. This the 15th day of March, 1897.

W. J. Fitzsimmons (Seal)

The foregoing will was this day signed, acknowledged and published by the testator in our presence, and he was at the time of sound mind and disposing memory, and was at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other herewith subscribe our names as attesting witnesses, This 13th March, 1897.

Probate

It appearing to the court now in session that Dr. W. J. Fitzsimmons late a citizen of Bradley County, Tenn. departed this life at his late residence in said County about the 20 day of September, 1898. And it further to the court ^{that} during his lifetime that the said W. J. Fitzsimmons, made his last will and testament, and Mrs. Louisa C. Fitzsimmons, widow of the said W. J. Fitzsimmons, presented to the court a paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of the said W. J. Fitzsimmons, and requested the court that said paper writing be admitted to probate as his last will. And came along with her H. D. Anderson one of the attesting to said script who after being duly sworn, said that he was present when the said W. J. Fitzsimmons made, published, and declared said paper writing to be his last will and testament, and that the testator signed said script in his presence, and in the presence of the other attesting witness B. P. Gant who is now dead, and they, at the request of the testator, and in his presence and in the presence of each other subscribe their names to said paper writing as attesting witnesses thereto, and that the testator was of sound mind and memory. Therefore the court orders, adjudges, and decrees that said paper writing is as it purports to be the last will and testament of W. J. Fitzsimmons dec'd, and that the court orders said will spread of record upon the Will Book of this court together with this probate.

It appearing to the court that W. J. Fitzsimmons departed this life testate at his late residence Sept. 2, 1898. And that in his will which has been duly probated in this court he appointed his wife Louisa C. Fitzsimmons his executrix without bond. Therefore the court orders and appoints Mrs. Louisa C. Fitzsimmons executrix of the last will and testament of the said W. J. Fitzsimmons and that she be excused from giving bond, and thereupon the said Louisa C. Fitzsimmons appointed in open court and was qualified and the court orders letters Testamentary issued to her.

WILL OF J. J. KENNEDY.

I, J. J. Kennedy of Cleveland do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any time heretofore made.

Item First. I direct that all of my just debts and funeral expenses first paid out of my money that I may die possessed of, or that may first come to the hands of my executor.

Item Second. I give to John C. Wood my silver watch in appreciation of his kindness to me.

Item Third. I give and bequeath to my daughter, Mrs. Nannie K. Wood, wife of John C. Wood, with whom I have made my home for many years, all my books and household effects, and furniture, particularly a beadstead, bureau, wardrobe, table, chairs and bed-clothing now in the home of my said daughter.

Item Fourth. I now have two promissory notes owing to me by my son John L. Kennedy, one being for ($200.) Two Hundred Dollars, and the other being for One Hundred ($100.) Dollars, aggregating Three Hundred ($300.) Dollars, less a credit of Fifteen ($15.) Dollars. Now whatever remains unpaid of the said notes at my death, I want collected, and after paying my debts and funeral expenses as aforesaid, I want any balance remaining of the proceeds of the said two notes disposed of as follows; and I will and direct accordingly, that is to say: I give to my said daughter, Mrs. Nannie K. Wood, One Hundred ($100.) Dollars to be used and be expended by her in such manner as to her may seem best in educating and maintaining her daughter Addie Stratton Wood. And then if any part of the said two notes remains undisposed of, I give ($25.) Twenty Five Dollars to Mrs. Alice Connor, to be used and expended by her in such manner as to her may seem best for her daughter, (My Grandchild.) Rosalie Kennedy; and then if any part of the said two notes remains undisposed of, I give the same to my said daughter, Mrs. Nannie K. Wood.

Item Fifth. I give to my son John L. Kennedy my walking Cane.

I know of no other property of any kind of which I am possessed, except what is hereinbefore disposed of. And I make the gift or requests herein more liberal in favor of my said daughter, Mrs. Nannie K. Wood, because she has labored for and waited on me for many years.

Item Sixth. I nominate and appoint as Executor of my will, my Son-in-law John C. Wood, and he is hereby authorized and requested to pay to Mrs. Nannie K. Wood, and to Mrs. Alice Connor whatever they may be entitled to receive under this will for their children as stated and simply take their respective receipts for the same without the formality and expense or requiring the appointment of Guardians. In testimony whereof, I hereto subscribe my name on this the third day of October, 1898.

J. J. Kennedy.

We the undersigned witnesses have subscribed our names, hereto as witnesses at the request of the Testator, and in his presence, he having so desired and acknowledged his signature as above subscribed to his last will and testament. This October 3rd., 1898.

NOVEMBER TERM, 1898.

It appearing to the Court that Riley Barnes, late a citizen of Bradley County Tennessee, departed this life at his late residence in Cleveland, in the said County and State aforesaid, on or about the 26th day of October 1898, and it further appearing that he died testate. And Malinda Barnes, wife of the said Riley Barnes deceased, produced in open Court, a paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Riley Barnes, deceased, and requested the Court that the said script be probated as the last will and testament of the said Riley Barnes deceased. And E. Waterhouse, Jr. one of the attesting witnesses to the said paper writing appeared in open Court, and after being duly sworn, deposes and says, that he was present when the said Riley Barnes, deceased, made, published and declared said paper writing to be his last will and testament, and that at the time of making said will he was of sound mind, and disposing memory, and that the testator signed the said script in his presence and in the presence of the other attesting witnesses E. Waterhouse, Sr. and Jno. T. Henry- and that he at the request and in the presence of the testator, and in the presence of the other two attesting witnesses who also signed the same at the request of the testator and in his presence, and in the presence of each other. The said E. Waterhouse, Jr. further testifies that E. Waterhouse, Sr. one of the attesting witnesses is dead, but that his signature is genuine, as he saw him sign the same, and that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said E. Waterhouse Sr. It further appears to the Court that the third attesting witness, Jno. T. Henry is out of the State and his testimony cannot be had; therefore the Court adjudges and decrees that the said paper writing is as it purports to be, the last will and testament of Riley Barnes deceased, and the Court orders said will spread of record upon the will book of this Court, together with this probate.

WILL OF WILLIAM F. RICHEY.

The last will of William F. Richey, late of the County of Bradley and State of Tennessee, made and declared by him on the 17th day of October, 1898, in the presence of the undersigned witnesses, Fannie Richey, M. E. Hambright and Frank Richey, all of said County and State, under the circumstances and in the words herein stated, to wit:

That said William F. Richey was lying sick in his own habitation and dwelling house in the County of Bradley, and was then in his last sickness, in which he had suffered but a few days, and from which he died about forty eight hours after declaring his will. The undersigned witnesses were present, and were tending upon him, when ~~he~~ called upon them to bear witness to his last will, saying, "I wish to make my will and want all of you to hear what I say, and be witnesses to it" and thereupon said William F. Richey proceeded to speak and declare as his said will the following words: "I give my wife Alvina A. Richey all my property. I know she will do right and I want her to have all of it to manage and dispose of as she sees fit. In witness whereof we the said witnesses have reduced to writing the said last will of the said William F. Richey, and subscribe the same, as witnesses, in the presence of each other, on this the 25th., day of October, 1898.
