Robert Green's Will

I Robert Green do make and publish this my last will and testament hereby revoking and making void all wills by me at any time heretofore made.

I direct that all of my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any money that I may be possessed of or may hereafter come into the hands of my executor.

I give and bequeath unto my wife Caroline Green the tract of land upon which I now reside and which was conveyed to me by Aaron Lipe and bounded on the North by the tract of land that I purchased from Saml Allen on the East by the same, and a tract of land that I bought from McMechins on the South by the said McMechins tract and on the West by the land now owned by Wilson Dodge containing by estimation 38½ Acres more or less.

And also that portion of the McMechins tract of land that lies immediately South of the above described tract and bounded as follows: Beginning on the South East corner of said tract, thence South to the South line of the McMechins tract, thence West with the line of the same to the South West Corner of said tract, thence North to the South West Corner of the Aaron Lipe or home tract, thence East with the line of the same to the beginning containing about 5 or 6 Acres more or less to have, hold, use and occupy said tracts of land as homestead with all the rents and profits of the same for and during her natural life or widowhood.

I give unto my wife the following property absolutely "to wit" all of the money that I may have on hand at the time of my death; and also my key mare mule and has a lump or wart on her side. I also give unto her the following property for and during her natural life or widowhood "to wit" all of my farming tools, hayse, hold and kitchen furniture, two other good mules or but one mule.

my two horse waggon and gear all of my traps and traps, two good Smith Combs and splines of my own selection.

I also give unto my wife and thence my family who may reside with me at the time of my death one years support for herself and family to be taken from the crop growing on or hand at the time of my death. Said years support shall be laid off by Commissioners appointed by the County Court at the time of the probating of my will.

I further direct that at the death or marriage of my wife the property herein bequeathed to her by the 2nd & 3rd Clauses of this my will shall go to my son Peter Green and be inherited by him.

As to the remainder of my real estate I give and bequeath the same to the following of my own children including my wife Lenora Green "to wit" Alice Edwards Susan Susan and Lenora Green (my said wife) to be divided equally between them share and share alike, said land shall be partitioned or divided by three disreputable Commissioners appointed by the County Court at the time of the probating of my said will without any bill or application otherwise: Said Commissioners after making partition of said land shall certify the same to my executor showing the respective lots drawn by each of said parties. And if my said Certificate my executor is authorized and empowered to execute deeds to each party for the respective tracts of land drawn by them and each one of said heirs shall hold, use and occupy said land with all of the rents and profits of the same for and during their natural lives and at their death shall descend and be inherited by their children or legal heirs.

I further direct that the heirs who receive land by the 6th Clause of this my will "to wit" Susan Susan Alice Edwards and Lenora Green each pay my son Peter Green the sum of Forty-one dollars and 66 Cents to be paid in two equal installments of ten and two thirds from the date of the division of said land to make the said Robert Green equal in consequence of receiving said land.

I have one son William Green. I suppose he is now dead. But it should afterward appear that he is living while I am alive. One equal part of the land bequeathed in 6th Clause of this my will, and have said land divided into four parts instead of three, provided the said William shall pay his ratable part of the amount directed to be paid to Hugh Green by the 7th Clause of this my will and the amount directed to be paid by the other children should be received in like proportion.

As to the remainder of my personal property, if any at my death, I direct that the same be sold and divided equally between my children, my wife and my peace Lenora Green. Share and share alike.

I hereby nominate and appoint G. J. Humble Executor of this my will. If he should decline to act, then I appoint John H. H. H. and if both of them should decline to act, I appoint W. Edwards and if all of the foregoing should refuse to act, I appoint W. H. Bennett.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand to this my last will and testament written on two sheets of legal cap paper this the 27th September 1881.

Robt T Boyd's Will

To whom it may concern:

Be it known that I Robert T Boyd of Buena Vista, Powell County, Tennessee in consideration of my continued poor health and the probable near approach of death, do hereby and herein set forth in writing my last will and testament countermanding all former papers purporting to be my will.

I bequeath the first of all my soul to God who gives me life and after death my body to the earth.

Second: I bequeath unto my beloved wife L. C. Boyd my entire estate, both lands and personal property after my debts and burial expenses are paid, to hold and to use for her necessary maintenance and for the necessary support and education of our son Otho C. during her natural life.

Third: in further consideration of the fact that we have been for several years and are now mainly dependant upon our son Otho C. for services in various ways about the place in my almost helpless condition and that his education has been hindered and delayed thereby, and the further fact that our three daughters have arrived at maturity and have been provided for in education and otherwise to the extent of our ability prior to and at the time of their marriage, I give to our son Otho C. Boyd the entire remainder of my estate, real and personal after the death of my wife L. C. Boyd to have and to hold and his lawful heirs and assigns after him forever.

I appoint my wife executrix without bond to execute this my last will and testament.
