I, Frank Napwood Taylor Shell, residing at Placencia, California, of the age of fifty one (51) years, more or less, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and not acting under duress, menace, or fraud, or the undue influence of any person whatsoever, do hereby make, publish and declare, this to be my Last Will and Testament, in the manner following, that is to say:

First: I hereby revoke all other and former Wills and Codicils to Wills by me made.

Second: I direct my Executor hereinafter named, to pay all my just debts and my funeral expenses, as soon after my demise as can lawfully and conveniently be done.

Third: I declare that I am married, that my wife's name is Lena May Shell, and that I have no living issue.

Fourth: All of my estate, whether the same be real, personal or mixed, or whatever kind or character and wherever the same may be situated, of which I may die seized or possessed, or in which I may have interest or right of testamentary disposition or power of appointment at the time of my death, I hereby give, devise and bequeath to my said wife, should she survive me, or should she predecease me, then as follows to wit:

One half (1/2) thereof to the Calvary Church of Placencia, California to be used for missionary work; and

The remaining one half (1/2) thereof to my brother, Hugh Taylor Shell, of 1939 Bay View Avenue, Wilmington, California, should he survive me, or should he predecease me, then to his surviving issue, if any, by right of representation, and should he predecease me leaving no issue surviving at the time of my death, then to my heirs at law in accordance with the laws of succession of the State of California then in force.

October Term - 1932.

Fifth: I am mindful of the statutory restrictions limiting under certain circumstances gifts, devise and bequests to or for the use and benefit of a Charity or Charities, and I hereby direct that should the foregoing devise and bequest to said Calvary Church of Placencia, California, fail in whole or in part because of any such restriction, I hereby give, devise and bequeath the portion, or all of such devise and bequest so failing to my brother, Hugh Taylor Shell, should he survive me, or should he predecease me, then to his surviving issue, if any, by right of representation, and should he predecease me leaving no issue surviving at the time of my death, then to my heirs at law according to the laws of succession of the State of California then in force.

Sixth: I have purposely made no provision for any other person, whether claiming to be an heir of mine or not, and if any person, whether a beneficiary under this Will or not mentioned herein, shall contest this Will or object to any of the provisions thereof, I give to such person no Contesting or objecting the sum of One Dollar ($1.00) and no more, in lieu of the provisions which I have made or which I might have made herein for such person so Contesting or objecting.

Seventh: I hereby nominate and appoint as Executor of this my last Will and Testament, Bank of Italy National Trust and Savings Association, a National Banking Association, and/or any successor Association or Success Corporation and/or assign of said Bank, whether by way of sale, transfer or trust business, merger, consolidation, conversion, acquisition or otherwise; and all powers, discretions and/or duties herein conferred or authorized, unless otherwise limited, shall be a part of the office of the fiduciary and shall inure to and shall each successive fiduciary during its term of office.

Last Will and Testament of B. D. Horton

I, B. D. Horton, of the County of Iberia and State of Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and realizing that I am mortal, and must sooner or later pass into the Great Beyond, and desiring to dispose of all of my property in the way and manner I have desired right and proper, do hereby make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and making null and void any and all other Wills I may have heretofore made:

Item I.

To my beloved wife, Rosa Horton, I will and bequeath the income from my fifty shares of stock in Cities Service Company, to be hers for her own use so long as she may remain unmarried, after my death, and upon her death or remarriage, it is my will that said stock shall become the property of my six children by my first wife, share and share alike. If my said wife, Rosa Horton, shall remarry after my death, it is my will that this stock shall at once become the property of my said children, together with the income therefrom, as though my said wife had died.

Item II.

To my six children by my first wife (my second wife being childless) I will and bequeath, share and share alike, all of the property of every kind and character that I may die the owner of, save and except the income from the fifty shares of Cities Service Company stock as set forth in the first item hereof, to be divided between my said children share and share alike, after all my just debts and funeral expenses shall have been paid.

Item III.

I hereby nominate and appoint my son, J. W. Horton of Hampton, Tennessee, as my Executor, who shall carry out my intentions as expressed in this will, and who shall act without bond.

The last Will and Testament of
W. Henry Pump.

I, W. Henry Pump, of Elizabethton, Carter County, Tennessee, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make, publish, and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made.

I will that all my just debts be paid as soon after my decease as it may be practical to do.

I give and bequeath to my wife Hazel Pump, for and during her natural life, all my property of every kind either personal or real property.

II. I give and bequeath to my daughter, now an infant, named Nettie Eugene Pump, the residue and remainder of all my property of every kind at the death of my said wife, or in the event my said wife should predecease me in death, except $5.00.

III. In the event my said wife and said child should die before I do, or in the event I have other children born unto me hereafter, I will devise and bequeath unto them all the property of every kind and description except said five dollars which is disposed of below.

IV. I will and bequeath to my adopted daughter, Annie Pump, now married to one Robert L. Pugh, the sum of $5.00. I having taken her when a small girl and have provided for her in every way until she is about twenty years old and she is now married and has a husband to support her.

Lastly, I do nominate and appoint my said wife, Hazel Pump, to be the executor of this my last will and testament, to serve without bond.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, on this the 5th day of June, 1928.
W. Henry Pump

Subscribed, published and declared by the said W. Henry Pump, as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

This my last will and testament, made this day November 8, 1926.

Realizing that I am not in good health and will soon have to part with this life, I do hereby will and bequeath, the following described property to my children, as named below.

First I will and bequeath to Julia Johnson, my daughter, the property I now live in containing three acres more or less, lying on the north side of the Public road, which I purchased from Eliza M. Pumphrey.

And I further want my four daughters, Nellie Vinis, Monia Harmon, Lelia Where, Lelia Cable, to have out of my estate, when it is sold, the sum of Two Hundred ($200.00) dollars each.

And I further bequeath to Cling Johnson, Richard Bid and Lea and my daughter, Julia Johnson, an equal part of the balance of my estate, what ever it may be.

And I further bequeath to my daughter what house hold goods that I have and in which is contained in the house which I now occupy.

I further appoint my son, Richard, to carry out this will.

In witness whereof I have affixed my hand and seal.
