This was the last will and testament of Andrew Taylor exhibited and proved in Court by the subscribing witnesses there to.

I am the name of Esq. Amos D. Swartz Taylor senior being of sound mind and knowing the mortality of the body and that it is appointed for all men once to die, have and do make this my last will and testament in the following manner, that is to say. I wish which I wouldly expect as I have pleased God to bless me with in this life, after all just debts being paid out of my personal property by my executors. My Will is at the death of myself and my wife Susabella Taylor, that my daughter Elizabeth Cooper widow of Joseph Cooper Dec^d, have my home part or parcel of land on which my house now stands, and which I now live in - Bounded by the lines of the lands I have heretofore made deeds of gift for to; that is to say my son Andrew Taylor - my son Jonathan Taylor now dead - my son Eathaniel Taylor, and my grandson David A. Taylor all and every part and parcel of land not heretofore conveyed by me in my home tract with an exception of a bargain of a few acres heretofore with Allan Lyles - between the land I purchased of Francis McFall to be and remain a lawful right of inheritance to her in fee simple during her natural life - My will is that at her death the before situated part or parcel of land be and do and remain in my three Grand Grand daughters - that is to say Rebecca Cooper, Isabel Cooper, and Mary Cooper and these lawful heirs as a sure and undoubted right of inheritance in fee simple - My will is that my daughter Sarah P. Taylor who is now married with Ansonius Farnsworth have one dollar to be paid out of my estate in full of what I do allow her. My will is that after my death and the death of my wife Susabella Taylor my executors make a sale and sell all that part of my property not by me willed as within mentioned and the money accruing from said sale both of real and personal estate to be equally divided between my two daughters, that is to say Mary Daniel wife of Noah Daniel and Egais Buck wife of Ephraim Buck annulling all other will or wills heretofore by me made touching my estate at any time &c, lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint Alfred St.

Laylor Senr and Nathaniel G. Laylor my Executors in witness to this my will set my hand and seal this first day of April Eighteen hundred and forty four
