

two daughters, that is to say Mary Daniel wife of Noah Daniel and Egnes Buck wife of Ephraim Buck & nothing all other will or wills heretofore by me made touching my estate at any time &c, lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint Alfred St.
Taylor Senr. and Nathaniel E. Taylor my Executors in witness to this my will set my hand and seal this first day of April Eighteen hundred and forty four Signed, sealed and acknowledged in the presence of
John M. Taylor
David A. Taylor
Andrew Taylor

June Term 1847

When was the last week and a half, and exhibited and proved by A. W. Taylor an open heart and proved by A. W. Taylor an William Foreman subscribing us upon them to State of Tennessee } John Williams, Senior Declaratory } bearing of Son-in-law and disposing of my estate of body and wearing the uncertainty of life, do hereby ordain and establish this as my last will and Testament - First - I give my soul to God to dispose of as he may see proper My Body I bequeath my Executors hereafter named to have buried in a Christian like manner

Secondly, I reserve my Exception hereinafter mentioned to pay all my honest debts, and to retain a power for that purpose, by conveying the whole due me, and after discharging the same should there be a balance of debts against me, they are bound by agreement to sell enough of my personal estate property to affect that object or should they themselves find it necessary they can at any time sell enough of my personal property to pay my debts. Thirdly, I give and bequeath to my Son John G. Williamson all the tract of Land that I purchased of Samuel E. Patton, agreeably to the conveyance made to me by said Patton, except a small portion set to my old Tract of Land supposed to be two or three acres to begin on the bank of Buffalo Creek, some two rods or thereabout from the line, running thence south to strike the Spring on the Hill side near where James Gentry lives and out of which he got his water for family purposes, running thence from the Spring through a hedge of rocks in the wheat field to the corner of the fence thence along that fence to the river road thence along the road to Northcutt. Taylor's line to be his his heirs and assigns forever. Fourthly, I give and bequeath to my wife Joanna Williamson during her life the plantation conveyed to me by Charles Thomas including my present residence at her death, I give and bequeath the said Tract of Land with the reservation made by me as before stated off of the Patton tract, to my Son Francis Marion Williamson his heirs and assigns forever, the same reservation above mentioned also to be my wife's during life.

Fifthly, To my Son Albert Gallatin Williamson I heretofore give a Tract of Land on Brush Branch which he now lives together with some personal property, which is in full of the part of my estate believing that he had a full share. Sixth I give and bequeath to my daughter Sarah Williams two Bows and farrington, two beefs, cattle, hens, and my Bay mare, puggle, cat.

Seventh I give and bequeath to my daughter Sabine Styles, wife of Michael Styles, Agatha King wife of George King, Rebecca Roe wife of William Roe, Vincy Hyatt wife of John Hyatt, Louisa Fair wife of David Fair, and to my grand daughter Annetta Tackway wife of Morgan Tackway.

Fifteen Dollars a piece, to be paid to them in any good trade notes against I am at three cents per pound, within two years from this date, which bequest to my said daughter, I do hereby require my son, John G. & Francis, Marion Williams, to pay them. Eighth I give and bequeath to my son Francis Marion Williams, the little Barn and house he sits, about bought by one of David Fair.

Ninth After the payment of my debts and the above legacy, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Louisa Williams all my stock of every kind forming my detours, with one cow, one mare, one horse house, barn and kitchen farrington in short all my personal estate of every kind and description to be and remain her own property and to be disposed of as she sees proper. Lastly I do hereby appoint my son John G. Williams, and my son in law John Hyatt Executors of this my last will and Testament. Furthermore believing that my son Gallatin ought to aid his Brother in the payment of the legacy above named to his Sister, and Niece, I therefore require him to pay Fifteen Dollars of the legacy in the same way that they were required to do.
Witness my hand and seal this 20th day of April 1847 at New Haven, Conn. I signed John Williams. (Seal) in my presence.