

Wednesday 1st day 1845

S M Carter

Wulms.

Miss L Murphy

Miss P Brown

Agnes Moore

There was the last will and Testament of Jonathan Taylor, Esq. exhibited and shown in open Court by the subscribing witnesses, thereto, to wit: Maria Taylor and Elizabeth Taylor: 5th December 1842.

In the name of God Amen I Jonathan Taylor being a weak and feeble body, but of sound mind and memory, and knowing that it is appointed for all men to die, do make and publish this my last will and Testament, to be in the following manner touching such worldly estate as I am possessed of after all just debts being paid: My will is that my Wife Sarah Taylor have during her life and widowhood State, have, occupy, possess and enjoy for her use, and for the use of the children all that tract or parcel of land whereon I now live and all my goods and chattels. ^{son} William Brown late of Taylor & Co. to the age of twenty one. And that my Wife Sarah Taylor should have, occupy, possess and enjoy his power, for his benefit and use in the most proper manner, to have it laid off among his wife and of said house tract. My will is, that if my sons do not agree ^{Henry Taylor, John Taylor, James Taylor,} ~~Charles W. Taylor, John M. Taylor, John Taylor,~~ Brother, John Taylor do mutually agree within three months, and one, or any of them pay over to each other what the may agree upon touching the value of the afore said house tract, then and in that case to be given over a title in fee simple to the purchaser from all and every of my heirs, whosoever claiming the same both in Law and Equity. Further my will is, that if my before named sons, can't agree touching touching the same then and in that case to be sold to the best bidder at the instance of my Executors and Executor and the proceeds of said sale, to be equally divided amongst my before named sons. My will is, that my Executors and Executor sell a fifty acres of what is called School Land, and put the Consideration thereof for the house family use, for schooling the children

- or for any other purpose for family use. My will is that the house now called John's be by law part right My will is that my daughter Isabel Taylor have when married by her out of my stock, and other wise agreed with my daughter now married. Further my will is, that all and every of my children now married, have when married by their help, a home as near as equal as may be. That is to say, Girls Mary and Margaret paid and the continue together and help each other. My will is, that my wife Barbara Taylor have all my stock of every kind with my farming interests of every description to enable her to raise the minor children that continue with her and for her own support. My will is that I should my wife have until the contrary of this my will is compiled with and be in possession of any property that I

That she may dispose of the same as she may think proper, with the consent of my Executor &c. and lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint my wife Phoebe Taylor my Executrix and do give my Executor, without requiring security in all things whereof I do to this my last will and Testament set my hand and seal this twentieth day of March 1840 Signed Sealed and Acknowledged in the presence of

Teste

Jonathan Taylor (Seal)

David A. Taylor

Amasa W. Taylor

Postscript before Signed my will is that the Burying Ground on my land whereon I now live be and remain free and clear of all debt & taxes ever owing there now and always hereafter. Witness my hand and seal the day and year above Written
Teste

David A. Taylor

Jonathan Taylor (Seal)

Amasa W. Taylor

Then was the last will and Testament of Leonard Heart bleb exhibited and read in Open Court by the subscribing witnesses thereto

I Leonard Heart of Sound and perfect mind and memory, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following First I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Phoebe Heart the following described property to wit All my Cupboards do and one Bureau One Kitchen Cupboard, two brass looking pots, One large Oven, one, one deep skillet, one pot trivet