all the debts and made a distribution of the remainder of the Estate among the Legal heirs with the exceptions of the heirs of Catharine Clap who was Catharine Keck and intermarried with Clap her children being the Legal heirs but has not appeared to demand their portion of said estate

After paying off all the just Debts the Remainder in my hands was to the best of my recollections the sum of $2.70.00 and in obedience to the will of said Keck which is on file now in the the county court clerk's office was paid to the widow one third of the above amount after paying to Phillip Keck the twelve dollars and the colt that was bequeathed in the will to him the said Keck which amount then left in my hands for distributions was the sum of 150 $ after deducting five percent for the expense and trouble in winding up said Estate which amount was equally divided among the heirs except Catharine Clap who was Catharine Keck which amount is and has at all times been ready for said heirs which Receipts is filed in this settlement. The cause of this settlement not being made heretofore is that my house was burned and all the papers that was concerning the estate of said Keck and being called on by the present clerk as the law directs have made the above settlement which is as near correct as my memory would permit

All of which is Respectfully submitted to your worships at the same Term of the county court 1848
