October 31st 1812
 We have examined the foregoing accounts of Howell Tatum as guardian of Augustine Kinning and the vouchers relating thereto and believe the same to be correct - and as far as respects the charges of D. Guardian for boarding, taxable and management of D. Estate we believe the said charges to be reasonable and that said Tatum as Guardian aforesaid has expended the sum of eleven dollars during three cents over and above his receipts from said Estate, which said Kinning ought to repay to him - No this settlement does not include a note given by Fredk. Wience & Stephen Chapley for the hire of negro Violet and her child - this said parties being insolvent before the same was payable
